WHAT HAPPENS AFTER YOU FILE

Petition to annul the record of a matter that has been vacated

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

This page is guidance. It is not a filing, it is not signed, and there is nothing on it to hand to a clerk.

WHERE THE PETITION GOES.

The committed record states it in its own words: "File NHJB-2317-DSe with the clerk of the court whose conviction was vacated, one petition per charge." One offence, one petition; NHJB-2317 says so itself, in capitals, on its own face.

WHAT THE COURT DOES NEXT, AND WHO ELSE SEES THE PETITION.

The record states who is told: "The court provides a copy of the petition to the prosecutor of the underlying offence under RSA 651:5, IX." You do not serve anybody. The record's own service rule for this route is: "None by the participant."

The petition's own text says the court considers an investigation and report prepared by the Department of Corrections and any response filed by the State, and that the court may decide the petition without a hearing unless you asked for one. If you want a hearing, you must tick the box on the petition that asks for it before you file - there is no box on this page and nothing here requests one for you.

THE MONEY THAT MAY STILL BE OWED AFTER YOU FILE.

The record states the cost of this route: "$125.00 per court location. Whether the RSA 651:5, IX $100 Department of Corrections investigation fee and the Department of Safety and state police fees apply is unresolved and is recorded below; on the face of the statute the exemptions do not reach a vacated conviction, so the packet should assume they are payable."

It records the question about the agency fees as open, and it is still open: "Whether the fee exemptions in RSA 651:5, IX and X(d), which are written around not-guilty, dismissed and not-prosecuted cases under paragraph II, reach a vacated conviction. On the face of the statute they do not, and paragraph IX was read at gc.nh.gov on 2026-08-06 without resolving it." Nothing in this packet answers it. Ask the clerk, and ask the Department of Corrections, what each of them will charge you.

If you cannot pay, the record names the papers to file instead: "Motion for Waiver of Filing Fee, NHJB-2311, with the Statement of Assets and Liabilities, NHJB-2328. Indigency also exempts the Department of Corrections and Department of Safety fees under RSA 651:5, IX." Both of those papers are in this packet, and both are filed with the petition rather than sent anywhere afterwards.

THE TWO FEE-WAIVER PAPERS, AND THE ONE THING ABOUT THEM NOBODY HAS SETTLED YET.

NHJB-2311-Se (07/01/2018) is the request: it is the Motion for Waiver of Filing Fee, and it is the paper that asks the court to waive the fee. NHJB-2328-DFPe* (01/01/2018) is the Statement of Assets and Liabilities that supports it - three pages, and its first page is headed "For e-Filing only". The motion says on its own face that a Statement of Assets and Liabilities is filed with it. Both are in this packet, at those printed revisions.

The statement's third page carries a service certification of its own. This is what it says, word for word: "I state that on this date I am sending a copy of this document as required by the rules of the Circuit Court. I am electronically sending this document through the court's electronic filing system to all attorneys and to all other parties who have entered electronic service contacts (email addresses) in this case. I am mailing or hand-delivering copies to all other interested parties."

Read that carefully, because of what it is and what it is not. It is SERVICE TEXT - the sentence you would be signing to certify that you sent a copy. It is not evidence that anything has been served, and nothing has: the copy has not gone out when this packet is prepared. So its checkbox, its signature and its date are delivered blank, and they stay blank until you have actually sent the copy. Do not tick it, sign it or date it in advance.

Notice also that the wording is the court's ELECTRONIC filing wording - sending the document through the court's electronic filing system to parties who have entered electronic service contacts. If you are filing on paper, that sentence does not describe what you did, and this packet will not tell you to sign it as though it did.

WHAT IS STILL OPEN, AND WHO ANSWERS IT.

Who that certificate must reach on an annulment filing, and by which route, is not settled by any record this packet is built on. The question is recorded in these words: "For an RSA 651:5 annulment filing, is the held NHJB-2328-DFPe* (01/01/2018), marked "For e-Filing only," the accepted financial statement for the relevant court and filing channel? If yes, must the applicant serve the underlying prosecutor with both NHJB-2311 and the complete NHJB-2328, using the form's electronic-service/mail-or-delivery treatment, or is the fee-waiver submission handled ex parte or under another rule? Please identify the authority and any redaction/confidential-filing treatment. If that version is unsuitable, identify the accepted version and service instructions. The statute's court transmission of the annulment petition should not be assumed to answer this separate question."

Nothing in this packet answers it, and this packet does not guess at an answer. ASK THE CLERK OF THE COURT YOU ARE FILING IN, BEFORE YOU FILE: ask whether that court accepts this version of the statement, whether the fee-waiver papers have to be served on the prosecutor at all, and if so how and in what form. Note that the petition itself is a different question and is already answered: you do not serve the petition on anybody, because the court transmits it to the prosecutor under RSA 651:5, IX. That statute does not settle the service of this separate financial statement, and it should not be read as if it did.

IF THE COURT GRANTS THE PETITION.

Page 3 of NHJB-2317 is the court's own page: it is marked FOR COURT USE ONLY, it is where the court records granting the annulment on one of the three grounds printed there, and it carries the list of who the court sends copies to - the prosecutor, the Department of Safety Criminal Records, the Division of Motor Vehicles and the Department of Corrections. That distribution is the court's to make. Nothing on it is yours to complete and nothing in this packet does it for you.

IF THE COURT DENIES THE PETITION.

The committed record lists among the exclusions from this route: "A further petition within 3 years of a denial, barred by RSA 651:5, IV." A denial therefore has a cost beyond the fee you already paid: it closes the route for three years. That is a reason to read the certification on page 2 of the petition before you swear to it, not after.

YOUR OWN CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD, WHICH DOES NOT GO TO THE COURT.

NHJB-2956 in this packet is a request to the State Police Criminal Records Unit for your own record. It is not filed with the petition and it is not sent to the clerk. The committed record calls it "the only practical way to build the complete record list that RSA 651:5, VI makes decisive" where you have other New Hampshire cases. Section II of that form releases your record to somebody else; leave it blank.

WHERE SELF-HELP ENDS.

This packet prepares four official forms and it decides nothing. The committed legal-design record for this route names 10 points where preparing your own papers stops being enough. They are set out below in that record's own words. If any one of them describes your case, stop here and get advice from a lawyer licensed in New Hampshire before you file.

- Obtaining the vacatur itself, which is post-conviction litigation and outside scope.
- Any dispute about whether the order is a vacatur.
- Prosecutor opposition.
- The participant requests a hearing.
- Multiple charges across multiple courts, which means multiple petitions and multiple filing fees.
- Federal, military, tribal or out-of-state records.
- A prior annulment petition denied within the last 3 years, because RSA 651:5, IV bars a further petition more frequently than every 3 years.
- The participant needs the annulment recognized federally or for immigration. It will not be.
- The participant expects a private background-check database to remove the record. RSA 651:5, XVII says it need not.
- The participant expects annulment to restore firearm rights. It does not.

The clerk of the court that handled your matter can tell you what the court requires procedurally, but a clerk cannot give you legal advice. This packet names no legal-aid organisation and no referral line, for the same reason it prints no courthouse address: the platform holds no sourced New Hampshire directory, and an invented one in a filing instruction is worse than none.

WHAT AN ANNULMENT DOES, AND WHAT IT DOES NOT DO

Petition to annul the record of a matter that has been vacated

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

This page is guidance. It is not a filing, it is not signed, and there is nothing on it to hand to a clerk. It is here because the packet-set manifest requires this route to disclose the effect of the order and its limits before you file, and because several of the limits below cost money or mislead people who have not been told them.

WHAT THE RECORD SAYS THE ORDER DOES. THIS IS THE COMMITTED RECORD'S OWN DESCRIPTION, QUOTED WHOLE:

"A person convicted of a criminal offence whose conviction was subsequently vacated by a court may petition for annulment where the offence falls outside the automatic route in paragraph II-a. There is no waiting period. Relief is discretionary under paragraph I and the court may decide without a hearing unless the petitioner requests one. The procedure, the form family, the investigation, the prosecutor's opportunity to be heard and the effect are the same as on the pre-2019 non-conviction petition; the difference is cost, because the RSA 651:5, IX and X(d) fee exemptions are written around not-guilty, dismissed and not-prosecuted cases and on the face of the statute do not reach a vacated conviction. Under RSA 651:5, X(a) the person is treated in all respects as if never arrested, convicted or sentenced. Court records are sealed with the limited access list at X(c). The arresting and prosecuting agencies must clearly identify the annulment in their files and electronic records. Law enforcement retains records under XI(b) and may share them for legitimate investigative purposes, in defense of a civil suit arising from the arrest, and with the police standards and training council. A prior conviction may still be considered at sentencing on a later crime and may count toward habitual offender status under RSA 259:39. Under XVI and XVII no journalist, person or entity faces any penalty for publishing an annulled record or for not removing or correcting an earlier report, which is the statutory reason private background-check databases keep showing the case."

THE ONLY QUESTION YOU CAN BE ASKED, ONCE THE RECORD IS ANNULLED.

The record states: "RSA 651:5, X(f) prescribes the only permitted form of inquiry: "Have you ever been arrested for or convicted of a crime that has not been annulled by a court?" This is directly useful participant-facing content and the reference does not carry it."

So an annulment does not make it a lie to answer that question honestly. It changes what the honest answer is.

WHAT IT DOES NOT DO. THE RECORD RECORDS THESE AS SCOPE RESTRICTIONS, IN ITS OWN WORDS:

- Annulment does not restore firearm rights and has no federal or immigration effect
- RSA 651:5, XVII means private databases need not correct
- Paragraph XII is repealed, so disclosure is not a crime
- That New Hampshire expunges, deletes or destroys records.

Read the second of those twice. RSA 651:5, XVII is the statutory reason a private background-check company can keep showing a case a New Hampshire court has annulled, and the record says so in terms: no person or entity faces any penalty for publishing an annulled record or for not removing or correcting an earlier report. An annulment is a court order about the court's and the agencies' records. It is not a deletion, and the record lists among the same restrictions the claim "That New Hampshire expunges, deletes or destroys records."

WHO IS OUTSIDE THIS ROUTE ALTOGETHER. THE RECORD'S OWN EXCLUSIONS:

- Vacated convictions inside paragraph II-a, which are annulled automatically with no petition and no fee.
- An order that is a reversal, a set-aside, a new trial order or a sentence modification rather than a vacatur.
- Federal, military, tribal and out-of-state records.
- A further petition within 3 years of a denial, barred by RSA 651:5, IV.

The first of those matters most on this route: where the vacated conviction falls INSIDE paragraph II-a it is annulled automatically, with no petition and no fee. If that is your case, filing this petition pays $125.00 for something the statute already gives you. Ask the clerk which side of paragraph II-a your offence falls on before you file.

WHAT NOBODY WHO PREPARED THIS PACKET MAY ASSERT FOR YOU.

- All Track 3 limits. Add: the vacatur itself is post-conviction litigation and is out of scope; the participant must already hold the vacatur order.
- That the applicant is rehabilitated or that annulment is consistent with the public welfare. Those are the court's findings under paragraph I and the certificate under X(b).

Relief on this route is discretionary. Whether you are rehabilitated, and whether annulment is consistent with the public welfare, are findings the court makes under paragraph I. This packet asserts neither, and no sentence in it should be read as evidence of either.

Every sentence quoted on this page is quoted from data/record-clearing/legal-design-track-registry.json, bound by SHA-256 in source-receipt.json, or from the New Hampshire legal-design memo bound beside it. Nothing on this page is legal advice and nothing on it decides whether you are eligible.
