* Based on State v. Anderson, 12 Kan. App. 2d 342, 744 P.2d 143 (1987), the law in effect at the time of the offense applies with regard to eligibility for expungement unless the current law is more beneficial to the defendant. The current statute, K.S.A. 21-6614(d)(2), says a second or subsequent DUI conviction under K.S.A. 8-1567 cannot be expunged until 10 or more years have elapsed, but from July 1, 2014, to June 30, 2015, the statute allowed any DUI conviction or diversion to be expunged after 7 years. L. 2014 Ch. 102, § 6, effective July 1, 2014; L. 2015 Ch. 71, § 4, effective July 1, 2015. For a first DUI conviction or diversion, the current law, allowing expungement after 5 years, applies because it is more beneficial to a defendant than the 7 years required from July 1, 2014, to June 30, 2015. For a second or subsequent DUI conviction, the current statute, K.S.A. 21-6614(d)(2), does not allow expungement until 10 or more years have elapsed. Therefore, for second or subsequent DUIs that were committed on July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, the statute in effect at the time of the crime that allowed expungement after 7 years applies because it is more beneficial to the defendant.

⁺Completion of a Specialty Court Program

A person who has completed the requirements of a specialty court program may petition for immediate expungement of any offense which is otherwise eligible for expungement after 3 years. This early expungement opportunity does not apply to offenses for which expungement is not available or to offenses which require a 1, 5, 7 or 10-year waiting period.

PREPARING FOR YOUR K.S.A. 21-6614(B) EXPUNGEMENT HEARING

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

The hearing on a Kansas expungement petition is real and it is required. The prosecutor appears. Any person with relevant information may testify. The court may inquire into your background and has access to Department of Corrections and Prisoner Review Board records.

The petition you are filing pleads only one of the four findings the court must make. The other three are about you, and the petition has nowhere to put them. That is what this page is for.

This page does not write your account of your own life and it does not predict the outcome. Both of those are outside what LegalEase does.

THE FOUR FINDINGS THE COURT MUST MAKE

1. The applicable period has elapsed. On this route that period is ONE year, K.S.A. 21-6614(b)(1), running from the LATEST of satisfying the sentence imposed, fulfilling the terms of the diversion agreement, or discharge from probation, a community correctional services programme, parole, postrelease supervision, conditional release or a suspended sentence. Not from the arrest and not from the conviction.

1a. And on this route there is a further element the ordinary lanes do not have: that you were acting under coercion caused by the act of another. It is yours to assert and yours to show, and this packet does not assert it, does not assess it and does not argue it.

2. The circumstances and behaviour of the petitioner warrant the expungement. This is about the years since. Assemble your own records: work, study, treatment, service, family, anything that shows what has changed. Bring them.

3. The expungement is consistent with the public welfare. The court weighs this itself. Nothing you file decides it.

4. If the petition seeks expungement of a felony conviction, that the petitioner's possession of a firearm is not likely to pose a threat to the safety of the public. This finding applies only to a felony. If your petition is for a felony conviction, this is a reason to get a Kansas lawyer before the hearing rather than after it.

WHAT THE COMMITTED RECORD SAYS, IN ITS OWN WORDS

What the committed record says about the fee, in its own words:

Docket fee $176 under K.S.A. 21-6614(g)(2). The supreme court may additionally impose a charge not exceeding $19 per case to fund non-judicial personnel; 2026 Senate Bill 430 carries that authority from July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2030. The docket fee is the only fee that may be collected for the case.

What the committed record says about notice, in its own words:

The court sets the hearing date and causes notice to be given to the prosecutor and the arresting law enforcement agency, K.S.A. 21-6614(g)(1). No response or objection period is specified; the prosecutor appears at the hearing.

What the committed record says about service, in its own words:

The clerk sends the Notice of Hearing. The participant does not serve and does not sign the certificate.

What the committed record says this packet must never do, in its own words:

LegalEase must not invent the coercion narrative, must not decide whether coercion is proved, and must not draft individualized trafficking advocacy. Wilma confirms the statutory elements and offers the referral without asking the participant to narrate the underlying facts.

A remedy that may be stronger than this one:

The participant may be a human-trafficking survivor eligible under K.S.A. 21-6617, which may be the stronger remedy and requires an individual assessment. This packet carries the referral and makes no assessment of its own. Attorney or qualified-advocate review before filing is recommended.

What the committed record says about the registration bar, in its own words:

A person required to register under the Kansas Offender Registration Act may not expunge any conviction or any part of their criminal record while registration is required, K.S.A. 21-6614(f). That freezes every case in the record, not only the registrable offence. The sole exception is the K.S.A. 22-4908 drug offender route; sex offender and violent offender registrants are barred with no exception.

What happens after an order is granted:

Under K.S.A. 21-6614(i)(2) there are twelve contexts in which the arrest, conviction or diversion must still be disclosed, including law enforcement employment, a commercial driver's licence, bar admission, private detective and private patrol work, KDADS institutions, the Kansas lottery, racing and gaming, expanded lottery act positions, state and tribal gaming, securities registration, bail enforcement licensure, and insurance producer or public adjuster licensure for a fraudulent insurance act. Subsection (l) lists eighteen categories of requestor to whom the custodian may still disclose. Paragraphs 12 and 13 of the granting order print the list.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET HELP INSTEAD OF FILING

- The prosecutor opposes the petition.
- The court sets a contested evidentiary hearing or a person appears to testify against the petition.
- The offence classification or severity level is disputed.
- The State v. Anderson time-of-offence analysis is in play beyond the DUI rows in the Judicial Council chart.
- The participant may currently be required to register under the Kansas Offender Registration Act.
- The record may be comparable to a K.S.A. 21-6614(e) offence under paragraph (19).
- The participant needs to build a real showing on the (h)(2), (h)(3) or (h)(4) findings.
- The petition seeks expungement of a felony conviction, because of the firearms-safety finding at (h)(4).
- The participant is seeking firearms restoration as the primary goal, which is a federal and state law question beyond the order.
- Immigration consequences are in play.
- The arrest county and the convicting county differ.
- The coercion element is contested or the prosecutor disputes it.
- The participant may be a human-trafficking survivor eligible under K.S.A. 21-6617, which may be the stronger remedy and requires an individual assessment.
- The participant asks LegalEase to help build or argue the coercion showing.

WHAT THIS DOCUMENT IS NOT

This page is preparation, not advocacy and not advice. It does not assess your record, it does not write your account of your own life, it does not narrate or assess coercion, and it does not predict what the court will decide.
