Remove a name-to-case search link

This motion asks the court that dismissed your criminal case to remove the link between your personal identifying information and that case in Utah state courts' publicly searchable database. It does not expunge the case or clear your record. Prosecuting, arresting and other agency records are unchanged. Unless separately expunged, the case history stays public and searchable by case number. Understand these limits before paying for help or filing.

The court forms and court self-help information are available without buying this packet. You may obtain them from the Utah Courts or the clerk and file yourself. This packet does not promise a court result.

Before filing: obtain the dismissal order from the clerk of the district or justice court that dismissed the case. Check the dismissal date and every charge against that order. At least 30 days must have passed. No appeal may have been filed within that 30-day period, and no charge may have been a domestic violence offense under Utah Code 77-36-1. If an appeal has been filed or you are unsure, stop and obtain legal help; the printed motion declares that no appeal has been filed.

Stop if a charge was or may have been domestic violence, if the case is unfinished, or if the request concerns a denied civil protective order or stalking injunction. Although the official forms also print that civil option, this criminal-case packet does not select or implement it. Resolve unpaid case fines, fees, restitution or interest; a pending non-traffic criminal case; current incarceration, probation or parole; or an active civil/criminal protective order or criminal stalking injunction before using this adopted self-help route.

Confirm every name used in the case (including former names, nicknames and aliases) and your date of birth against the court record. The published forms do not supply a separate date-of-birth or alias field. Ask the clerk how to identify any differing court-record identity; do not add private identifying information to unrelated public blanks.

Removing the link can be an interim step. It does not prevent automatic expungement or a separate expungement request. A dismissal with prejudice has a separate 180-day automatic-expungement process; if automatic expungement has not occurred, a separate petition may still be available. Expungement means sealing or restricting agency access, not destruction; BCI retains an expungement file released only by court order.

Your confirmed commissioner branch

The court confirmed that a commissioner handles motions in this case. Use 1501CR-C + 1502CR + 1111GE. Do not select a branch from the county or case category alone. If that confirmation is absent, conflicting or uncertain, stop and ask the clerk; no filing packet is generated until the branch is confirmed.

File in the existing dismissed case at the court shown in the caption: District Court, Third Judicial District, Salt Lake County; 450 South State Street, Salt Lake City, UT 84111. Verify the court address and case number with the clerk before filing. These review-fixture facts are synthetic; use the actual case record for a real packet.

Keep the complete motion, including its bilingual responding-party notice and Certificate of Service, and proposed order 1502CR. The proposed order is caption-filled only. The judge or commissioner supplies findings, grant/deny selections, order date and signature. Do not mark those controls yourself.

Commissioner branch: form 1111GE retains its printed 1111GEJ footer and Notice of Hearing title. Obtain the actual hearing date, time, location, room and deciding officer from the court before completing and serving the notice. The commissioner motion warns that a written response may be filed at least 14 days before the hearing. Attend the scheduled hearing; absence can lead to a decision without your input. Request an interpreter or disability accommodation from court staff when needed.

Serve the prosecuting attorney under the applicable motion-service rules. This is a motion in an existing case, not first papers in a new civil action. Use the actual permitted service method and address; ask the clerk or legal help if unsure. Serve the motion and the applicable submission/hearing notice and keep proof. Complete each Certificate of Service only after the stated filing and service actually occur. Leave an order-service certificate blank until there is an actual order to serve.

No filing-fee amount is established for this motion by the held route materials. Ask the clerk of the existing criminal case whether a fee is charged and its current amount. Do not assume the civil-expungement cover sheet or civil filing fee applies. If you cannot pay a fee the clerk charges, ask for the ordinary court fee-waiver process and the required application; Utah Courts lists 1306GE, Order on Motion to Waive Fees for Criminal Expungement. That order is not itself a completed waiver application. No BCI certificate application is included for this search-link motion.

Complete and check before filing

Review all typed participant contact details, the State of Utah plaintiff caption, your defendant name, case number, court level, judicial district, county, address and assigned judge. A name in a judge caption identifies the assigned judicial officer; it is not a judicial signature or a finding. The defendant/self-represented and criminal-dismissal options are selected from the recorded fixture facts. Attorney/bar-number and civil-case options remain blank.

Motion 1501CR-C, page 2: write the actual city and state or country where you sign; personally sign and date the declaration after checking its truth. Your printed name is supplied. No notarization is required by the held statute or published motion. The motion's last page is a Certificate of Service: the actual server supplies recipient, method, service address, service date, printed name, signature and date after the event.

Order 1502CR: leave all findings and outcome boxes on pages 1-2, the order date and judicial signature blank for the court. Its last-page service certificate records an actual later service event and remains blank now. Do not sign for a judge or commissioner.

Notice 1111GE: page 1-2 hearing subject (including the Spanish line), courthouse location, date, time, AM/PM, room and deciding officer must match the court-issued schedule. Obtain help from the court to accurately complete the Spanish line if needed. The Commissioner (domestic cases) caption is not a place to turn a criminal case into a domestic case; the actual hearing officer belongs in page 2's Judge or Commissioner field. Page 3: personally sign and date; printed name is supplied. Page 4 records actual service.

The dismissal order is an external document you must obtain; this packet does not create or fabricate it. No hearing is represented as scheduled and no service is certified by generating this packet. Blank later-event, actor-owned and court-owned controls are deliberately preserved. Ask the clerk which filing methods are accepted and how to retain a filed copy and obtain the entered order.

Required limits and stop checks are taken from this search-link route's adopted record and the enclosed official forms. This is an internal diagnostic packet pending independent review and original-page raster acceptance; it does not open a commercial route.
