Maryland expungement: before you file

SYNTHETIC QA EXAMPLE - DO NOT FILE

The first page is the official CC-DC-CR-072A petition. These following pages are instructions for you, not additional pleadings or a court order.

Selected disposition: compromise. Case: D-06-CR-20-000001. Prepared using the facts supplied as of 2026-09-07.

The supplied text and selections are populated. Verify them against your complete court record, then personally sign and date the petition. The software has not signed it for you.

Filing court: Montgomery County-Rockville (DC). 191 East Jefferson Street, Rockville, MD 20850

Confirm the venue against the case docket. Normally use the court in which the proceeding began. For an adult-court transfer use the receiving court. For a juvenile transfer use the original court that entered the transfer, and request only the criminal-case records. An appealed case may require filing in the appellate court; obtain help rather than assume the original court is still correct.

Use free Maryland Judiciary Case Search and obtain any missing docket/disposition records from the clerk. Account for every charge in the incident and confirm the unit rule in Criminal Procedure 10-107. Do not select only an attractive charge while hiding another charge in the unit.

The ordinary printed waiting-period statement used in this packet is met no earlier than 04/02/2023. A future treatment or probation completion is not a completed event.

Do not use this petition for an ordinary conviction, a pardon application, or a cannabis-conviction petition. Do not use it as a substitute for CC-DC-CR-072C on the early automatic-expungement route. When all charges qualify under 10-105.1 and were disposed on/after October 1, 2021, check the automatic-expungement status before filing an unnecessary petition.

For an acquittal, dismissal or nolle before the ordinary three-year period, a general waiver and release may be required. It gives up tort claims arising from the charge. No release is attached or elected in this ordinary packet. Do not falsely check the statement that a release is attached. Get the correct early/release packet and consider legal advice before giving up claims.

Review the date of birth, case number, agency, incident, every charge and every checked statement. If any known value was not fitted, the complete value is disclosed above; it was not shortened on the court form. Correct the source fact or obtain help with a permitted continuation, then re-render or complete the blank legibly.

Sign and date the Defendant block yourself after checking every statement. Leave the attorney block blank when self-represented. Do not sign for a witness, notary, clerk or judge. This 072A form uses an affirmation under penalties of perjury and does not require notarization.

FILING FEE: $0 for this 072A nonconviction petition. Do not pay the $30 guilty-disposition fee and do not add a prepaid-costs waiver to a free filing. A waiver of tort claims is not a fee waiver.

Make and retain a complete copy before filing. File the signed official petition with the proper clerk in person, by mail, or through MDEC when using electronic filing. Confirm any required copy count and the current mailing address with that clerk; do not email the petition to a general website-contact address. Once registered to e-file, follow the continuing e-filing requirement.

SERVICE: the court serves the State's Attorney. You do not need to certify that you served anyone. This packet contains no participant certificate of service and no proposed order.

AFTER FILING: the State's Attorney ordinarily has 30 days after service to object. A timely objection requires a hearing. If an objection, hearing, disputed unit, excluded PBJ offense or appeal arises, keep all papers and promptly seek a lawyer or legal-aid help; do not ignore notices or response deadlines.

AFTER AN ORDER: unless stayed on appeal, record custodians must report compliance to the court and you within 60 days after entry. Keep the order and Certificates of Compliance. A filed petition or a signed order alone does not prove all record holders complied. Follow up with the clerk if certificates or corrections remain missing.

Keep your original case/disposition records before expungement, especially for immigration or other proceedings outside Maryland law. Maryland expungement does not guarantee that every federal, immigration, licensing or private-background-check question can be answered the same way.

Court help: Maryland Court Help Center, 410-260-1392. Bring your docket, dispositions, this packet and any objection or notice. This packet supplies forms and instructions, not representation or a promise of an expungement.
