OKLAHOMA JUVENILE EXPUNGEMENT PETITION UNDER 10A O.S. Sec. 2-6-109

A. WHAT THE COMMITTED RECORD ESTABLISHES ABOUT THIS ROUTE

This petition is brought on the route the committed route contract records as "Juvenile record expungement", under 10A O.S. Sec. 2-6-109.

The compiled Oklahoma profile records the substance of this route as follows. A juvenile record subject, parent, guardian, or attorney may petition the district court where the juvenile record is located. The person must have completed the informal adjustment, deferred adjudication, probation, or custody requirements; the case must be dismissed/closing; there must be no adult arrest, charge, indictment, or information pending; and all court costs, restitution, fines, and ordered requirements must be completed. ("https://law.justia.com/codes/oklahoma/title-10a/section-10a-2-6-109/")

The committed contract records the timing of this route as: available at final review, or after successful informal adjustment or closure, when the statutory conditions are met; no generic clock applies.

The committed contract records these conditions on the route: Current Oklahoma law effective July 1, 2026; Exact remedy, offense class, disposition, completion, and operational availability; Excluded offenses and clean-record rules apply.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS - OKLAHOMA JUVENILE EXPUNGEMENT PETITION UNDER 10A O.S. Sec. 2-6-109

WHAT THIS ROUTE IS, AND WHO RUNS IT

The committed route contract records this route as "Juvenile record expungement", under 10A O.S. Sec. 2-6-109, with outcome mode "participant_packet".

The committed contract names the packet components for this route as: Petition under Sec. 2-6-109; Disposition or closure record. This packet composes the filing pages; anything on that list that is a RECORD rather than a pleading is a document you obtain and file with the petition.

Who runs it: The participant petitions and the district court decides. The compiled profile records who may bring it: "A juvenile record subject, parent, guardian, or attorney may petition the district court where the juvenile record is located. The person must have completed the informal adjustment, deferred adjudication, probation, or custody requirements; the case must be dismissed/closing; there must be no adult arrest, charge, indictment, or information pending; and all court costs, restitution, fines, and ordered requirements must be completed.
("https://law.justia.com/codes/oklahoma/title-10a/section-10a-2-6-109/")"

WHAT YOU DO

- Check every condition the compiled record states, because they are cumulative: the requirements completed, the case dismissed or closing, no adult arrest, charge, indictment or information pending, and all court costs, restitution, fines and ordered requirements completed.
- Obtain the disposition or closure record; the committed contract names it as a component of this packet.
- Fill every labelled item from the record, and sign and date the petition personally.

WHAT YOU DO NOT DO

- Do not expect the record to be destroyed. The compiled profile records that the records are SEALED and are not physically destroyed by default, and that juvenile and criminal-justice actors may still access them for later proceedings, sentencing or placement.
- Do not file while an adult arrest, charge, indictment or information is pending. The compiled record makes that an express condition.

WHAT IT COSTS, AND WHETHER A WAIVER EXISTS

No committed record this packet binds states a filing fee, or a fee waiver, for this route. The office that answers both is the office of the court clerk of the Oklahoma district court where the juvenile record is located. Ask before you go, because a filing you cannot pay for is a filing you cannot make. What the compiled record DOES state about money is a condition rather than a price: all court costs, restitution, fines and ordered requirements must be completed before this relief is available.

WHO MUST BE SERVED, AND WHO IS NOTIFIED

No committed record this packet binds states who must be served on this route, or how. The office that answers it is the office of the court clerk of the Oklahoma district court where the juvenile record is located.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET HELP INSTEAD

- any adult arrest, charge, indictment or information is pending - the compiled record makes that an express bar;
- court costs, restitution, fines or ordered requirements are outstanding;
- the case has not been dismissed or closed;
- what you want is destruction of the record rather than sealing - the compiled record states that records are not physically destroyed by default and remain reachable by juvenile and criminal-justice actors;
- any immigration question is involved.
