Case No. 24-CR-001234

Plaintiff,

vs.

Jordan Avery Reyes

(your full name)

Defendant.

ORDER SETTING ASIDE A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

This matter came before the court pursuant to the defendant's Motion to Set Aside and nullify this criminal conviction, within the meaning of Neb. Rev. Stat. § 29-2264 of the Nebraska Revised Statutes. This court finds it has subject matter jurisdiction to consider the issue before it, that it is unlikely the defendant will engage in further criminal activity and finds further that it is in the defendant's best interests and is consistent with the public interest to grant the Motion.

Based on these findings, the court orders that the criminal conviction in this case be set aside and nullified, which set aside shall remove any and all civil disabilities and disqualifications allowed by law and imposed as a result of those convictions.

COMPLETING THE PETITION TO SET ASIDE A CRIMINAL CONVICTION

Use this form to ask the court to set aside a criminal conviction. You may only ask for a set aside for cases where you were sentenced to pay a fine, to complete community service, to probation, or sentenced to a term of imprisonment of one year or less.

You will need to know your case number, the county where the charge was filed, the date of the offense, and the offense you were charged with.

You can get a copy of your criminal history through the Nebraska State Patrol (There is a small charge to get your record.), do a one-time court case search of Nebraska Court records (There is a small charge to get your record, but it may not be a complete record.), or by going to the courthouse and using the public access terminal to get information on your record. (There will be a charge for copies provided to you by the court.)
