COMPLETING THE MOTION TO SEAL AN ADULT CRIMINAL RECORD

You will need to know: your case number, the county where the charge was filed, whether it was filed in county court or district court, the date of the charge, the offense you were charged with, and the outcome of the charge (dismissed or acquitted.)

You can get a copy of your criminal history through the Nebraska State Patrol (There is a small charge to get your record.), do a one-time court case search of Nebraska Court records. (There is a small charge to get your record, but it may not be a complete record.), or by going to the courthouse and using the public access terminal to get information on your record. There will be a charge for copies provided to you by the court.

NOTE: Only check the box for “Resulted in a conviction that was later set aside” if the conviction was set aside because you were a victim of sex trafficking.
