Maryland conviction: review before filing

SYNTHETIC QA EXAMPLE - DO NOT FILE

Jordan Avery Reyes | case D-10-CR-18-000001 | facts as of 2026-09-07. Eligible misdemeanor: five years.

The official filing is CC-DC-CR-072B, revision 10/01/2025-2. These companion pages are instructions, not an additional petition or court order. This packet is not a finding that relief has been granted.

Filing court: Carroll County (DC); 101 North Court Street, Westminster, MD 21157; telephone 410-871-3500. Confirm case venue and the current clerk address against the docket before mailing.

Normally file where the proceeding began. If transferred between adult courts, use the receiving court. If appealed, file in the court exercising appellate jurisdiction; it may remand. Circuit Court may hear a District Court appeal. Do not select a circuit caption for an appeal in the Appellate or Supreme Court. A juvenile-transfer record is a different route.

Case chronology: conviction 04/02/2018; actual sentence completion not supplied. The waiting period cannot be verified until the actual completion date is supplied.

Sentence completion includes probation, parole and supervision. A probation violation is not treated here as an automatic permanent bar. No completion date, conviction grade, domestic classification or new-conviction eligibility is inferred from the offense name.

Check every incident charge and disposition using free Maryland Judiciary Case Search and the clerk records. Keep your original records before expungement. Confirm the entire unit under Criminal Procedure 10-107, including its applicable exceptions. Unlike disposition/date/basis units need individualized preparation; this packet does not collapse them into one recital.

A pardon, cannabis conviction, PBJ or other nonconviction uses its own exact route and form. This packet does not attach a general release of tort claims. Do not use a waiver of claims to shorten a conviction waiting period.

COMPLETE BEFORE FILING: 2 unresolved field or predicate item(s) are identified below. Resolve them and re-render before personally signing.

Complete missing facts and execution

SYNTHETIC QA EXAMPLE - DO NOT FILE

Case facts / Sentence completion date: Supply actual completion of all sentences, including probation, parole and supervision. A predicted date is not completion.

CC-DC-CR-072B / Disposition selection - Eligible misdemeanor: five years: Left unmarked while required case predicates or dates are missing.

Read every selected statement on the actual petition. Sign and date the Defendant block only after it is true. Leave the attorney block blank when self-represented. The petition and financial affidavit use affirmations under penalties of perjury, not a required notarization.

Restitution status supplied: paid. If ordered, obtain the clerk balance and actual payment records, or financial documentation of inability to pay. External records are not manufactured or claimed attached by this packet. A claimed inability is not the court finding required if a hearing occurs.

Fees, filing, service and follow-up

SYNTHETIC QA EXAMPLE - DO NOT FILE

PAID BRANCH: the CC-DC-CR-072B filing fee is $30, non-refundable, per case, not per charge. Bring or send payment as the clerk directs. No CC-DC-089 or MDJ-008 waiver-only component is included. This court fee is separate from any product, copy or postage charge.

Keep a complete copy. File signed documents with the proper clerk in person, by mail, or through MDEC using its filing categories and restricted-document handling. Confirm any required copies and payment method with the clerk. A general contact email is not a filing address. Registered e-filers must follow continuing e-filing requirements.

SERVICE: the court serves the State's Attorney and sends notice to listed victims at addresses in the court file. Their objection period is 30 days after service. Do not contact a victim or fabricate a participant certificate of service.

STOP AND GET HELP if an actual objection is filed, a hearing is set, restitution is disputed, domestic classification is uncertain, or eligibility of an intervening conviction is unclear. Preserve the initial packet and all notices for a lawyer or legal-aid provider; do not ignore court deadlines.

At a contested hearing, the court must decide eligibility, public safety, restitution payment or inability to pay, and the interest of justice. The packet cannot supply those judicial findings or promise a favorable result.

After an expungement order, unless stayed on appeal, custodians must advise the court and you of compliance within 60 days. Keep the order and compliance certificates. Follow up with the clerk when compliance is missing. Maryland relief does not guarantee removal of every federal or private record or settle immigration disclosure questions.

Contents: CC-DC-CR-072B + these participant instructions. There is no proposed expungement order.

Help: Maryland Court Help Center, 410-260-1392. Bring the docket, dispositions, completion and restitution records, this packet and any notices.
