PROCESS GUIDANCE: WHICH OF THE TWO ROUTES YOU ARE IN

Petitioner: Jordan Avery Reyes

Docket No.: CP-51-CR-0004170-2021

County: Philadelphia

Route: Expungement Following an Unconditional Pardon

READ THIS BEFORE YOU FILE ANYTHING

The census records two routes for this family, and they are told apart by something neither of these forms asks:

- a Rule 790 petition, where the automatic route has not cleared the record: Form PA-RCRIM-P-790-PETITION.
- no filing - process guidance, where it has: this page.

If the automatic route has already cleared the record, there is nothing here to file. A packet that only ever told you to file would be telling you to do work you may not need to do, and to pay for it.

HOW TO FIND OUT WHICH ONE YOU ARE IN

Ask the Clerk of Courts for the county in the caption above what the docket now shows for this case. The petition in this packet also has a box for attaching your Pennsylvania State Police criminal history, and that history is the document that shows what is still on the record. If the record is already clear, stop; if it is not, file the petition.

This page states no timetable and no criterion for that, because neither is established by the two forms this packet is built from, and an unsourced criterion in a filing instruction is worse than none.

IF YOU DO FILE

File the petition with the Clerk of Courts. The order in this packet is tendered WITH the petition -- it is the order the judge signs, not a document you fill in or sign. The platform has written only the style of the case into it. Do not sign the order.

The petition asks for a great deal the platform does not hold: the presiding official who heard the case and their court address, the affiant on the complaint and theirs, the Offense Tracking Number, and every charge row with its title, section, subsection, description, counts, grade and disposition. All of it is listed in this packet's participant instructions, by the words printed beside each blank.

WHAT THIS PACKET IS NOT

This is a prepared petition, a tendered official order and this guidance page. It is not legal advice, it is not filed for you, and it does not decide whether the court will order expungement.
