Authority

K.S.A. 22-4908, as amended 2022 S.B. 366.

Notes on Use

As amended in 2022, K.S.A. 22-4908 allows drug offenders to file a petition seeking relief from the registration requirements of the Kansas Offender Registration Act, K.S.A. 22-4901, et seq. Sex offenders and violent offenders are not currently authorized to seek relief from registration.

Drug offenders may petition for relief after having registered for a period of at least five years after the date of parole, discharge or release, whichever date is most recent, or, if not confined, five years from the date of conviction. Any period of time when an offender is in jail or prison or is not in substantial compliance with registration requirements does not count toward the five-year period.

The district court may require a drug offender who is petitioning for relief from registration to undergo a risk assessment at the offender's expense.

If the drug offense for which the offender is registering would otherwise be eligible for expungement, the offender may combine a petition for registration relief with a petition for expungement. (Please review the expungement forms on the Judicial Council website to determine expungement requirements for drug offenses.)

To obtain relief, the offender must show by clear and convincing evidence that:

1) The offender has not been convicted of a felony (other than a felony registration violation) within the five years immediately preceding the filing of the petition, and no proceedings involving a felony are presently pending or being instituted against the offender;
2) The offender's circumstances, behavior and treatment history demonstrate that the offender is sufficiently rehabilitated to warrant relief; and
3) Registration of the offender is no longer necessary to promote public safety.

If the court orders relief, the offender will be removed from the offender registry and will no longer be required to register. If the court denies relief, the offender must wait three years before filing another petition for relief.

* Based on State v. Anderson, 12 Kan. App. 2d 342, 744 P.2d 143 (1987), the law in effect at the time of the offense applies with regard to eligibility for expungement unless the current law is more beneficial to the defendant. The current statute, K.S.A. 21-6614(d)(2), says a second or subsequent DUI conviction under K.S.A. 8-1567 cannot be expunged until 10 or more years have elapsed, but from July 1, 2014, to June 30, 2015, the statute allowed any DUI conviction or diversion to be expunged after 7 years. L. 2014 Ch. 102, § 6, effective July 1, 2014; L. 2015 Ch. 71, § 4, effective July 1, 2015. For a first DUI conviction or diversion, the current law, allowing expungement after 5 years, applies because it is more beneficial to a defendant than the 7 years required from July 1, 2014, to June 30, 2015. For a second or subsequent DUI conviction, the current statute, K.S.A. 21-6614(d)(2), does not allow expungement until 10 or more years have elapsed. Therefore, for second or subsequent DUIs that were committed on July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, the statute in effect at the time of the crime that allowed expungement after 7 years applies because it is more beneficial to the defendant.

[+]Completion of a Specialty Court Program

A person who has completed the requirements of a specialty court program may petition for immediate expungement of any offense which is otherwise eligible for expungement after 3 years. This early expungement opportunity does not apply to offenses for which expungement is not available or to offenses which require a 1, 5, 7 or 10-year waiting period.

PREPARING A KANSAS REGISTRATION-RELIEF AND COMBINED-EXPUNGEMENT FILING

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

The registration-relief petition is verified. Read every printed fact against your records before you sign.

We recommend attorney review before filing, because relief requires clear and convincing evidence, the county or district attorney is notified, victims may be notified and may participate, and the court may order a risk assessment.

This page explains the court-controlled parts of the process and the facts the participant must supply. It does not write the rehabilitation or public-safety account.

THE FOUR FINDINGS THE COURT MUST MAKE

The registration-relief court applies the statutory five-year and substantial-compliance requirements, including the treatment of periods that do not count.

The participant must address the recent-felony and pending-felony condition described by K.S.A. 22-4908.

The participant must present the own circumstances, behavior and treatment history showing sufficient rehabilitation; the court decides it.

The court decides whether registration is no longer necessary to promote public safety, and may require a risk assessment at the participant's expense.

WHAT THE COMMITTED RECORD SAYS, IN ITS OWN WORDS

Venue and filing:
The verified petition is filed in the district court of the county where the participant was convicted or adjudicated of the offense requiring registration.

Treatment providers:
The petition requires the names of all treatment providers and agencies that treated the participant for mental health, substance abuse and offense-related behavior since the offense.

Notice:
The court causes notice to the county or district attorney, who handles victim notification under the statute. The participant does not perform that service.

Victim protection:
The victim or the victim's family cannot be compelled to testify or to provide discovery to the offender.

Fee waiver:
None identified in K.S.A. 22-4908. The K.S.A. 60-2001 poverty affidavit practice applies to the civil docket fee by its own terms; its reach over the combined expungement fee is unresolved.

Risk assessment:
The court may require a risk assessment by a professional agreed upon by the parties or approved by the court, at the participant's expense.

Denial:
A denial bars another petition for three years unless the court orders a shorter period.

Combined filing:
The offense may be combined with a K.S.A. 21-6614 expungement petition when it is otherwise eligible; the two forms and filing mechanics remain separate questions for the clerk or counsel.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET HELP INSTEAD OF FILING

- The participant is a sex offender or violent offender registrant.
- Five years of substantial compliance is disputed, or incarceration or noncompliance periods are in question.
- A recent felony or pending felony proceeding is present.
- The county or district attorney opposes the petition, a victim participates, or the court sets a contested hearing.
- The court orders a risk assessment.
- The participant asks LegalEase to write or assess the rehabilitation or public-safety showing.
- The combined offense is not otherwise eligible for expungement.
- The participant has immigration consequences or another issue requiring legal advice.
