

CRIMINAL SET-ASIDE

(ADULT CASES)

What is a Set-Aside?

A set-aside (also called expungement) means the court seals your criminal or contempt record. Once sealed, it will not show up in official court records. However, they may show up in certain federal background checks, and in rare cases the court can unseal them.

The information below is not legal advice. Please read ORS 137.225 and other relevant Oregon laws for the most recent and accurate information about sealing criminal records. Court staff are not allowed to give you legal advice, so please consult a lawyer if you need advice or legal representation.

The requirements to be eligible can be complicated. The information listed here are just the most basic eligibility requirements. Please be aware that there may be unique requirements and exceptions depending on your individual case.

Who can use this process?

You can ask the court to set aside your record if:

- You were arrested, charged, convicted of a violation or crime, found guilty except for insanity, found in contempt of court, or your case was dismissed or acquitted
- If you were a minor (under 18) at the time of the arrest or citation or were charged as a minor, use the juvenile expunction forms available here:
www.courts.oregon.gov/programs/jcip/ModelCourtForms/Pages/default.aspx

You may qualify for a set aside if you were convicted, and:

- You finished your sentence, including probation and paying restitution and fines
- You haven't been convicted of another crime during the required waiting period (except traffic violations or a single violation offense)
- You don't have any open criminal charges or open abuse/person-related contempt proceedings such as violation of a restraining order
- Your case is not one of the exceptions listed in ORS 137.225. Convictions for Class A felonies, many sex crimes, several child abuse crimes, and many others are not eligible. Please read ORS 137.225 for the full list. Other laws may apply to your case.
- Your case was not for a traffic offense conviction
- Your case was not handled in federal, tribal, out-of-state court, or local court

How long do I have to wait to file for a set aside?

It depends. If you were convicted of an offense, use the longest timeline for your situation:

Type of Case	Wait Time (since conviction or release from prison)	If New Offense Committed, the Wait Time Extends by:
Class B Felony	7 years	7 years
Class C Felony; Contempt for abuse/person crime	5 years	5 years
Class A Misdemeanor	3 years	3 years
Class B/C Misdemeanor; Violation; Contempt unrelated to abuse/person crime	1 year	1 year

If you were found guilty except for insanity (GEI), different laws may apply. Refer to ORS 137.223 for the most recent and accurate information regarding GEI.

If your probation was revoked, you must wait 3 years from the revocation date or follow the timelines above—whichever is longer

If you were arrested or cited for an offense but the prosecutor did not proceed to filing a case:

- You can file 60 days after the prosecutor says they won't file charges, or you can file any time after your case was dismissed or you were acquitted

Driving under the influence of intoxicants (DUII) cases are not eligible if charges were dismissed because you completed a diversion program

How do I file?

1. Get fingerprinted and:

- Oregon State Police fingerprinting instructions available here:
<https://www.oregon.gov/osp/programs/cjis/Pages/Criminal-Justice-Information-Services.aspx>
- Send your fingerprint card to the Oregon State Police.
- Pay the Oregon State Police fee if you are asking the court to seal a conviction.
- Fill out the Oregon State Police Request for Set Aside form.

- Oregon State Police will send the results to the prosecuting attorney.
 - 2. Fill out the Oregon Judicial Department's Motion to Set Aside and Declaration in Support.
 - 3. Make 2 copies of the Motion and Declaration:
 - One for your records
 - One to send to the District Attorney (see step 4)
 - 4. Mail a copy of motion and declaration to the Prosecuting Attorney in the county where charges were or could have been filed, or arrest occurred. Mailing address for Oregon District Attorneys:
<http://www.oregonda.org/copy-of-contact>
 - 5. Fill out the certificate of mailing at the bottom of the form
 - 6. File your forms in the circuit court where the case happened or would have happened. Information about how to file:
<http://www.courts.oregon.gov/courts/Pages/default.aspx>

What happens next?

- The District Attorney typically has 120 days to object. If they object, the court will schedule a hearing. You may receive a hearing notice from the court.
- If the court grants your request:
 - Your record is sealed. ORS 137.255(4) states that “upon entry of the order, the conviction, arrest, citation, charge or other proceeding [ordered set aside by the court] shall be deemed not to have occurred, and [you] may answer accordingly any questions relating to its occurrence.”
 - You will receive a copy of the judicial document sealing your case.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Movant: Jordan Avery Reyes

Case No.: none - this route is a citation or arrest with no court case, and the form says to leave the Case No. line blank

County: Multnomah

Route: Motion to Set Aside the Record of an Arrest, Citation or Charge Where No Accusatory Instrument Was Filed (ORS 137.225(1)(c))

WHERE THIS GOES

File the Motion and Declaration in the CIRCUIT COURT of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County - the county in which you were arrested, cited or charged. The caption on the motion is already filled in with that county.

THE ORDER OF THE STEPS MATTERS

The Oregon Judicial Department's own instruction pages are the first three pages of this packet, and they set the order. In short:

1. Handle the Oregon State Police request and fingerprint card as a separate agency handoff. Follow the current county or jurisdiction instructions for when that handoff is sent; enclosing the request here is not proof that fingerprints have been filed.
2. Complete the Motion and Declaration. Every item this packet's participant instructions list is yours to fill in.
3. Make two copies: one for your records, one for the District Attorney.
4. Mail a copy to the prosecuting attorney in the county where charges were or could have been filed, or where the arrest happened.
5. Complete the certificate of mailing at the bottom of the motion - at the time you mail it, not before.
6. File the court forms in the circuit court.

WHAT THIS PACKET ANSWERED FOR YOU

Page 4 of the motion says to check ONE option only. This packet is built for ORS 137.225(1)(c), so Option 3 is marked and the other two are left unmarked. Read the marked option against your own record before you file; if it is not true of your case, this is the wrong packet.

Option 3 covers a citation or arrest where no accusatory instrument was ever filed. The Case No. line is deliberately blank: the form itself prints "leave blank if no court case" beside it. If a case was in fact filed against you, this is not the packet for it.

WHAT THIS PACKET DID NOT ANSWER

The declaration boxes on page 5 are your sworn statements about your own case, and nothing marks them for you. Read each one and tick the ones that are true.

The statement that you have filed fingerprints with the Oregon State Police remains yours to make. The included agency request does not answer that sworn statement for you.

The last three declaration boxes are printed under "If you selected Option 1 above". This packet is filed on Option 3, so they are left unmarked as a branch this route does not use.

The motion says "No Filing Fee" on its own face. The included Oregon State Police fee line is for requests to set aside convictions, while these two routes concern no conviction. Any separate fingerprint-provider charge is a participant and agency matter; this packet does not invent an amount.

BEFORE YOU FILE

- Before using this packet, obtain the Oregon State Police LEDS criminal history or equivalent record check and use it to confirm the record and disposition.
- Before filing, have the prosecutor's declination and its date from the prosecutor's office or the circuit court file; the 60-day clock runs from that declination, not from the arrest.
- Before filing, answer whether the matter was a DUII diversion dismissal, a traffic-violation citation, a pending charge or contempt proceeding, or a matter in more than one Oregon county.

STOP AND ASK FOR HELP

Stop before filing if any of these conditions applies:

- The prosecutor's declination or its date cannot be established.
- The matter was a DUII charge dismissed after successful completion of a diversion agreement.
- The matter was a traffic-violation citation dismissal.
- A criminal charge or covered contempt proceeding is pending while the motion is before the court.
- The prosecuting attorney objects and a hearing is required.
- The participant has matters in multiple Oregon counties, requiring separate filings.
- The request concerns federal or out-of-state records.
- The participant's goal is restoration of firearm rights; an Oregon set-aside does not restore them.
- The participant has an immigration concern.

NO PROPOSED ORDER IS ENCLOSED

The court filing packet contains the Motion, the Declaration of Eligibility and the Certificate of Mailing. The Oregon State Police request is a separate agency handoff file, governed by the current county or jurisdiction instructions. Neither file contains a proposed order; the court's own packet does not include one and none is drafted here because the order is the court's act, not this packet's.

WHAT THIS PACKET IS NOT

This is a prepared set of official Oregon forms. It is not legal advice, it is not filed for you, and it does not decide whether the court will set aside your record. The instruction pages say the same thing in the court's own words: court staff are not allowed to give legal advice.
