

|                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                         |                                        |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| JDF 613                                                                                                                                                                   | Order Denying Request to Seal Conviction Records |                                        |
| A. Court<input type="checkbox"/> District <input type="checkbox"/> CountyColorado County: DenverCourt Address: _____                            |                                                         | This box is for court use only. |
| B. Parties to the CasePlaintiff: People of the State of Coloradov.Defendant: Maximiliana Aurelia Featherstonehaugh-Wintersgill de la Concepcion |                                                         |                                        |
| C. Case DetailsNumber: _____Division: _____Courtroom: _____                                                                                            |                                                         |                                        |

1. Decision

After reviewing the request to seal the Defendant's records, the Court finds:

- ☐ The motion, on its face, is insufficient. Or,
- ☐ After review of matters outside the motion, the Defendant is not entitled to relief under C.R.S. §§ 24-72-706 to 710.

The Court denies the motion because:

2. So Ordered

By: _____
☐ Judge   ☐ Magistrate

Dated: _____