Verified Request to Expunge a Collateral Action

Authority: I.C. 35-38-9-0.5; I.C. 35-38-9-9.5

VERIFIED REQUEST

Petitioner requests expungement of a collateral action related to an expunged matter under I.C. 35-38-9-9.5 and the definition in I.C. 35-38-9-0.5.

The request must identify:

Petitioner's name: Jordan Avery Reyes

[Participant completes: the court and date of the original expungement order]

[Participant completes: the county where the collateral action occurred]

[Participant completes: the collateral action's cause number, if it has one]

[Participant completes: the kind of collateral action: seizure, civil forfeiture, specialized driving privileges petition, or administrative proceeding]

[Participant completes: the factual and legal relationship between the collateral action and the expunged matter]

[Participant completes: a properly certified copy of the original expungement order]

Venue: A circuit or superior court in the county where the collateral action occurred, filed under the collateral action's cause number where possible.

Filing: File under the collateral action's cause number where possible, in a circuit or superior court in the county where the collateral action occurred.

Service and notice: The court notifies the prosecuting attorney. Confirm local practice before assuming the participant need not serve. The court notifies the prosecuting attorney of that county and sets a hearing, or may grant without a hearing where the record conclusively establishes entitlement.

The participant signs this verified request.

[Participant completes: signature and date]

STOP: The court finds the collateral action does not relate to the expunged matter.
