RECORDS CHECKLIST - CLEAR A FIRST DRUG-POSSESSION CASE THAT ENDED IN A CONDITIONAL DISCHARGE

This page is for Maria-Alejandra O'Shaughnessy-Whitfield.

The committed track registry for this route records the documents you must obtain before this application can be filed, who holds each one, and which answer in this packet each one is used to check. They are set out below in the registry's own words. Nothing on this page is a fact about your case; it is a list of the records your case's own facts have to be read from.

GET THESE BEFORE YOU FILE

[] Obtain Conditional discharge order and the order of discharge and dismissal. Ask the clerk for certified copies of the order deferring proceedings and placing you on probation, and of the later order discharging you and dismissing the proceedings. Both dates matter and they are usually different.

Who holds it: Clerk of the court that entered them.

Check your answer to "On what date did the court enter the order deferring proceedings and placing you on probation?" against Conditional discharge order and the order of discharge and dismissal, and correct the packet if they disagree.

[] Obtain Written confirmation of the date the probation term expired. Ask the supervising probation office for written confirmation of the date your probation term expired. The six-month clock runs from that date, not from the dismissal, and the two are often months apart.

Who holds it: The probation office that supervised the participant.

Check your answer to "On what date did that probation term expire?" against Written confirmation of the date the probation term expired, and correct the packet if they disagree.

GET THIS IF IT APPLIES TO YOU

[] Obtain Receipt or clerk's confirmation that court costs were paid. Ask the clerk for a payment history or a receipt showing the assessed costs are paid.

Who holds it: Clerk of the court that assessed them.

When it applies: Only where court costs were assessed under Sec. 60A-4-407(c) and the participant is unsure whether they are satisfied.

Check your answer to "Have you paid the court costs the court assessed in this case?" against Receipt or clerk's confirmation that court costs were paid, and correct the packet if they disagree.

WHY THE TWO DATES ARE NOT THE SAME DATE

The six-month period this application depends on begins to run on the expiration of the term of probation, not on the date the court dismissed the proceedings. The registry records that the two are often months apart, which is why the probation office's written confirmation is a separate record from the clerk's orders and why both are required.

This page is a checklist. It is not filed with the court and it asserts nothing about your case.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS - CLEAR A FIRST DRUG-POSSESSION CASE THAT ENDED IN A CONDITIONAL DISCHARGE

This page is for Maria-Alejandra O'Shaughnessy-Whitfield.

WHAT THIS SET OF PAPERS IS

Application to Expunge Records of Arrest, Trial and Conviction After a First-Offence Controlled Substance Conditional Discharge, W. Va. Code Sec. 60A-4-407(b).

A person who has not previously been convicted of any offence under chapter 60A or under any federal or state narcotics, marihuana, stimulant, depressant or hallucinogenic drug statute, and who pleads guilty to or is found guilty of possession of a controlled substance under Sec. 60A-4-401(c), may with their consent have further proceedings deferred and be placed on probation without entry of a judgment of guilt. On fulfilment of the terms and conditions the court discharges the person and dismisses the proceedings without adjudication of guilt. The discharge is not a conviction for purposes of any disqualification or disability imposed by law, and its effect is to restore the person in contemplation of law to the status occupied before arrest and trial. There may be only one discharge and dismissal under the section with respect to any person. Read at source on 2026-08-06, subsection (b) supplies the relief this track generates: after a period of not less than six months, beginning to run immediately on the expiration of the term of probation, the person may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordations of the arrest, trial and conviction, and if the court determines after a hearing that the person was not guilty of any serious or repeated violation of the conditions of probation during probation or before the application, it shall order the expungement. Subsection (c) makes the person liable for the court costs assessable against a person convicted under Sec. 60A-4-401(c), and payment may be a condition of probation.

WHERE IT GOES

Clerk of the court that entered the conditional discharge order

File the application with the clerk of the court that deferred proceedings and placed the participant on probation, once at least six months have run from the expiration of the probation term. The statute contemplates a hearing at which the court determines whether there was any serious or repeated violation of the conditions of probation.

Venue: The court that entered the conditional discharge and imposed probation. Section 60A-4-407(b) directs the application to 'the court', which is the court whose probation expired.

WHAT IT COSTS, AND WHETHER A WAIVER EXISTS

Fee as recorded: Section 60A-4-407 charges no fee for the application. Under subsection (c) the participant remains liable for the court costs assessable against a person convicted under Sec. 60A-4-401(c), and payment may have been made a condition of probation. Whether a circuit clerk charges a civil filing fee for the application is not established by the section. Fee waiver as recorded: none stated in Sec. 60A-4-407.

WHO MUST BE SERVED

Service as recorded: Serve the prosecuting attorney of the county and the supervising probation office, following the Sec. 61-11-26(e) service practice West Virginia clerks expect. Notice as recorded: Section 60A-4-407(b) provides for a hearing but names no statutory notice or opposition window. The application is served on the prosecuting attorney as a matter of ordinary practice.

WHAT THE RECORD SAYS YOU MUST KNOW

- Expungement window: at least six months after the end of probation, the person may apply for expungement of official records of the arrest, trial, and conviction.
- One-time limit: only one discharge and dismissal is allowed under this section.
- What LegalEase can prepare: the application, the probation expiration proof, and the six-month calculation.
- Before drafting anything for these tracks, confirm the Judiciary form index. If drafting proves necessary, the section 61-11-26(d) petition contents list is the right model for verified content, and the section 61-11-26(e) service list is the right model for service, even on tracks governed by other statutes, because West Virginia circuit clerks will expect that shape.
- Tell the participant to obtain the conditional discharge order, the order of discharge and dismissal, and the probation office's written confirmation of the probation expiry date, and to attach them.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET HELP INSTEAD OF FILING

- Anyone has alleged that the participant committed a serious or repeated violation of the conditions of probation, whether during probation or since.
- The participant has had a prior drug conviction or a prior conditional discharge, either of which means the underlying discharge should not have been available.
- Probation was revoked, or the court entered an adjudication of guilt.
- The participant is also considering a Sec. 61-11-26 conviction expungement, because whether this relief spends the once-per-lifetime petition is unresolved.
- The court sets a contested hearing or the prosecuting attorney objects.
- The clerk of the court will not accept a self-drafted application, or requires a local form.
- Firearm rights, immigration consequences, professional licensing, or federal, tribal, military or out-of-state records questions.
- LegalEase must not generate any assertion about the participant's probation violation history. The court determines whether there was a serious or repeated violation.
- If the prosecuting attorney objects or the court sets a contested hearing on the probation-violation question, automated assistance ends and the participant needs a lawyer. The initial packet still generates.
