PROOF THAT THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY RECEIVED A COPY OF THE PETITION

READ THIS FIRST: YOU MAY NOT NEED THIS PAGE.

Government Code Sec. 411.0745(e) makes THE COURT responsible for giving the State notice of your petition and an opportunity to request a hearing, and the committed record states that you should not be charged for that notice. You are not the one who serves the State.

OCA instructions nonetheless direct a petitioner to show proof that the district attorney received a copy of the petition, and some counties expect it. ASK THE CLERK OF THE COURT YOU ARE FILING IN whether that county wants this. If it does not, leave this page out.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS, WHAT IT COSTS, AND WHAT THE ORDER DOES

Prepared for: Maria-Alejandra O'Shaughnessy-Whitfield

BEFORE ANYTHING ELSE: THERE MAY BE A STRONGER REMEDY, AND IT IS FREE.

The committed record for this route treats the overlap with EXPUNCTION as decisive, and as routing logic rather than an optimisation. A veterans treatment court dismissal may also support expunction under Code of Criminal Procedure art. 55A.053(a)(2)(A), with the streamlined 30-day order under art. 55A.203 AND NO FEE. Expunction is the STRONGER remedy because it DESTROYS the record rather than sealing it. The committed record also records, as a point where self-help ends, that the expunction route has not been tested first. Ask about expunction before you spend a filing fee on this.

WHERE THIS IS FILED. File the petition with the CLERK OF THE COURT THAT SENTENCED YOU or placed you on community supervision. That clerk forwards it to the court. This is NOT the county of arrest, and the committed record calls that the single biggest venue difference from expunction - if you are pursuing both, they may be two different courts. Under Government Code Sec. 411.0745(a) you may file in person, electronically or by mail. OCA instructions say that in most courts a proposed order must be submitted with the petition, which is why the proposed order is in this packet.

ONE OFFENCE, ONE ORDER. An order of nondisclosure applies to a single offence. If you want more than one offence sealed, that takes more than one order.

WHAT IT COSTS - AND THE NUMBER YOU SHOULD IGNORE.

Government Code Sec. 411.0745(b) says the petition must be accompanied by payment of a fee THAT GENERALLY APPLIES TO THE FILING OF A CIVIL CASE. Read carefully, that subsection sets the TYPE of fee, not an amount: there is no flat statutory figure for a petition-based nondisclosure, and your county's civil filing fee schedule governs. OCA instructions describe the total as TYPICALLY ABOUT $280, VARYING BY COUNTY, and tell you to call the clerk.

SO CALL THE CLERK OF THE COURT YOU ARE FILING IN and ask what the civil filing fee is there, before you go.

NOW THE NUMBER TO IGNORE: $28. You may have read that an order of nondisclosure costs $28. THAT FIGURE IS NOT YOURS. It belongs only to the no-petition route under Government Code Sec. 411.072(c), and the committed record states in terms that it is not a filing fee at all. This is a petition route under Sec. 411.0727. Do not arrive at the clerk's window with $28.

IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD IT. Paragraph 6 of the petition lets you choose between paying the fees and costs and filing a STATEMENT OF INABILITY TO AFFORD PAYMENT OF COURT COSTS under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145. That Statement is in this packet, on the statewide bilingual form approved by the Supreme Court of Texas in Misc. Docket No. 22-9090. Rule 145 requires the clerk to make that form available WITHOUT CHARGE AND WITHOUT YOUR HAVING TO ASK, so you are entitled to it whether or not you use the copy here.

The Statement is sworn under penalty of perjury. Fill it from your own records - pay statements, benefit letters, bills - and not from memory. Nothing on it is filled in for you except your own name, date of birth, address, telephone number and email, because the platform holds no financial fact about anyone.

WHO GIVES NOTICE TO THE STATE - AND IT IS NOT YOU. Under Sec. 411.0745(e), on receipt of your petition THE COURT provides notice to the State and an opportunity for a hearing. The committed record states that you should not be charged for that notice. OCA instructions do direct a petitioner to show proof that the district attorney received a copy, and some counties expect it, which is why this packet includes a proof-of-delivery page marked CONDITIONAL. Ask the clerk whether that county wants it.

WILL THERE BE A HEARING? A hearing is required UNLESS the State does not request one before the 45th day after receiving notice AND the court finds that you are entitled to file the petition and that issuing the order is in the best interest of justice. So: if the State stays silent for 45 days and the court makes those findings, there may be no hearing at all.

NOTARIZATION. Subchapter E-1 does not require the petition to be notarized. County practice may differ. Ask the clerk.

THE WAITING PERIOD. This section uses one period: file on or after the SECOND ANNIVERSARY of the date you SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED the veterans treatment court programme. Get the record that states that completion date and calculate from the date the record actually states, not from memory.

AND A CONDITION THAT RUNS THROUGH THOSE TWO YEARS: a FELONY CONVICTION at any time between completion and the second anniversary defeats this route. The petition asserts you had none.

THE ONE THING THIS SECTION WILL NOT COVER. Under Sec. 411.0727(e) this section is NOT available if you entered the veterans treatment court programme as a result of a conviction for an offence involving THE OPERATION OF A MOTOR VEHICLE WHILE INTOXICATED. The petition asserts you did not, and the proposed order asks the judge to FIND it. If that is how you came into the programme, this is the wrong route and you should get advice.

WHAT THE ORDER ACTUALLY DOES - AND WHAT IT DOES NOT. Nondisclosure is SEALING, not expunction. The order prohibits criminal justice agencies from disclosing the record to the public, and the information is still disclosed to the individuals and agencies listed in Government Code Sec. 411.076(a). The clerk sends the order to the DPS Crime Records Service; DPS forwards it to the agencies in Sec. 411.075(b); and any person, agency or entity holding the information seals it no later than 30 business days after receiving it, under Sec. 411.075(d). The record is not destroyed and you should never say it does not exist.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET HELP INSTEAD.

The committed track registry for this route records these as the points where self-help ends, in its own words:

- Any family violence finding or family violence allegation anywhere in the record.
- Any prior conviction or deferred adjudication other than a fine-only traffic offence, where the target section carries a first-time-offender condition.
- The prosecutor opposes the petition or requests a hearing.
- Any dispute about whether the sentence, fines, costs or restitution were completed.
- Immigration consequences.
- Any question whether the offence was violent or sexual in nature, which is a court determination under Gov't Code 411.0735.
- The expunction route under art. 55A.053(a)(2)(A) has not been tested first.

This packet adds five more of its own, taken from the assertions the forms in it actually make:

- You entered the veterans treatment court programme as a result of a conviction for an offence involving the operation of a motor vehicle while intoxicated. Sec. 411.0727(e) puts that outside this section, and the proposed order asks the judge to find the opposite.
- You have ever been convicted of any offence listed in Code of Criminal Procedure art. 42A.054(a) - the list the petition prints in full on its pages 2 and 3.
- You have ever been convicted of a sexually violent offence as defined by Code of Criminal Procedure art. 62.001(6).
- You were convicted of any felony between the date you completed the programme and the second anniversary of that date.
- You have ever been convicted of, or placed on deferred adjudication for, any offence on the Sec. 411.074 list the petition prints on its page 4 - a Chapter 62 registerable offence, aggravated kidnapping, murder, capital murder, trafficking or continuous trafficking of persons, injury to or abandoning or endangering a child, elderly or disabled individual, violation or repeated violation of certain court orders, stalking, or any other offence involving family violence.

DOCUMENTS TO GET FIRST, AND WHO HAS THEM.

- Your Texas DPS criminal history record - the Texas Department of Public Safety Crime Records Service, following DPS form CR-63. It establishes the disposition and shows every other conviction and deferred adjudication the petition asks you to swear about.
- The record of your successful completion of the veterans treatment court programme - the clerk of the court that placed you in the programme, or the programme itself. It establishes the route and the date the two-year period runs from.
