

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Submit your application to the Court where you were convicted. (NOTE: There is no application fee.)
- If you submit in person, bring a valid government-issued photo ID proving you were the defendant in the case.

DISCLAIMER: When the records concerning a conviction are expunged, the case information is unavailable to anyone except: 1) a law enforcement agency to which you are applying for a job as a police or peace officer, or 2) a pistol permit licensing officer/bureau to which you are applying for a pistol permit. Please be advised that, if the arrest and conviction records are destroyed, the Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) will no longer have any record of the case and will be unable to verify that the conviction was vacated, the case dismissed, and the record expunged. In other words, it will appear that the events never occurred. Please consider this consequence carefully, and you may wish to consult with an attorney.
