WHAT THIS GUIDE IS - AND IS NOT

This is route-scoped process guidance only. It is not a Delaware SBI application, is not a court form, and is not filed or submitted anywhere. LegalEase does not offer checkout or a filing packet on this route.

The label DE-SBI-MANDATORY-EXPUNGEMENT-APPLICATION is an internal repository description, not a title or form number assigned by Delaware. Do not print, sign, mail, upload, or file this guide as a substitute application.

Under the committed Delaware record, SBI identifies mandatory-eligible cases monthly for automatic expungement under Sec. 4373A. That automatic branch requires no participant filing. This guide does not decide whether a person or case is eligible.

EXACT SBI DESTINATION AND NEXT STEPS

First ask SBI whether the automatic process has already reached your case. If you are applying through SBI, use its expungement enrollment service code 27S23V, not the personal-background-check code 27RVGT. The initial application fee is $72. Follow the registration instructions for your appointment or permitted mail-in option and identification. After review, SBI sends an eligibility notice. Only if SBI says you qualify for mandatory expungement, return the signed paperwork within 30 days after you receive it with a $75 money order payable to Delaware State Police. A notice directing discretionary relief leads to a different court process, not a court filing made with this guide.

Source checked September 7, 2026: Delaware State Police, Obtaining a Certified Delaware Criminal History, <https://dsp.delaware.gov/obtaining-a-certified-criminal-history/>, and the linked official 27S23V service-code sheet. Enrollment is through the linked fingerprint service or by telephone at 1-866-761-8069. Bring valid, unexpired photo identification and any required name-linking document. Follow SBI's current directions before enrolling, paying or mailing anything; this guide does not supply a mailing address. The source page and sheet are retained by hash; no printed revision date is asserted for the sheet.

Check your answer to "What were the exact charges and statute sections, and were they violations, misdemeanors or felonies?" against the certified Delaware criminal history, and correct the packet if they disagree.

Start with the Delaware State Police, State Bureau of Identification, Expungement Section. Call 302-739-5884. The official process page is <https://dsp.delaware.gov/expungements/>. Tell SBI you are checking mandatory or automatic expungement under 11 Del. C. Secs. 4373 and 4373A. Ask whether the automatic process has reached the case and what identifying or case information SBI needs to review it.

If SBI determines that the person is eligible, SBI provides an eligibility letter and instructions. Wait for that letter and follow only the current directions it contains. Do not send this guide, invent an application, or send a payment based on this guide. No mailing address, portal, or submission method is asserted here. SBI PROCESS COSTS. The initial expungement application charge is $72. The additional $75 money order is due only if SBI's notice finds you mandatory-eligible and directs return of the signed paperwork. Do not add a separate court filing fee to these agency charges. A discretionary court petition is a different route with its own costs. Do not purchase the personal-use history service as a substitute for the expungement service; ask SBI before ordering an additional report.

Fee waiver and conversion, as the same record states it: under 11 Del. C. Sec. 4372(l), if an outstanding fine or fee is unpaid for reasons other than wilful noncompliance and the person is otherwise eligible, the court may grant the expungement and waive the fines or fees or convert them to a civil judgment. Unpaid fines, fees, or restitution where that waiver or conversion is needed is a stop condition on this route, not a step to take from this guide.

SELF-HELP STOP

Stop and get help before taking another step if SBI says the case is not mandatory-eligible, directs you to a court petition, or the record does not clear after SBI's process. Those events leave this guidance-only route.

Stop and get help if there is uncertainty about every charge in a case, waiting-period dates, prior or later convictions, pending charges, incarceration, probation or parole, unpaid fines, fees or restitution, or an offense involving domestic violence, a child, a vulnerable adult, a violent felony, or mixed traffic and nontraffic charges.

Stop and obtain appropriate legal advice if the goal is to attack the conviction rather than clear the record, or if immigration, firearms, professional licensing, a registry, or law-enforcement employment may be affected.
