FILING INSTRUCTIONS, WHAT IT COSTS, AND WHAT THE ORDER DOES

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

WHERE THIS IS FILED. File the petition with the CLERK OF THE COURT THAT SENTENCED YOU or placed you on community supervision. That clerk forwards it to the court. Under Government Code Sec. 411.0745(a) you may file it in person, electronically or by mail. OCA instructions say that in most courts a proposed order must be submitted with the petition, which is why the proposed order is in this packet.

ONE OFFENCE, ONE ORDER. An order of nondisclosure applies to a single offence. If you want more than one offence sealed, that takes more than one order.

WHAT IT COSTS - AND THE NUMBER YOU SHOULD IGNORE.

Government Code Sec. 411.0745(b) says the petition must be accompanied by payment of a fee THAT GENERALLY APPLIES TO THE FILING OF A CIVIL CASE. Read carefully, that subsection sets the TYPE of fee, not an amount: there is no flat statutory figure for a petition-based nondisclosure, and your county's civil filing fee schedule governs. OCA instructions describe the total as TYPICALLY ABOUT $280, VARYING BY COUNTY, and tell you to call the clerk.

SO CALL THE CLERK OF THE COURT YOU ARE FILING IN and ask what the civil filing fee is there, before you go.

NOW THE NUMBER TO IGNORE: $28. You may have read that an order of nondisclosure costs $28. THAT FIGURE IS NOT YOURS. It belongs only to the no-petition route under Government Code Sec. 411.072(c), and the committed record states in terms that it is not a filing fee at all. This is a petition route under Sec. 411.0731. Do not arrive at the clerk's window with $28.

IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD IT. Paragraph 6 of the petition lets you choose between paying the fees and costs and filing a STATEMENT OF INABILITY TO AFFORD PAYMENT OF COURT COSTS under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145. That Statement is in this packet, on the statewide bilingual form approved by the Supreme Court of Texas in Misc. Docket No. 22-9090. Rule 145 requires the clerk to make that form available WITHOUT CHARGE AND WITHOUT YOUR HAVING TO ASK, so you are entitled to it whether or not you use the copy here.

The Statement is sworn under penalty of perjury. Fill it from your own records - pay statements, benefit letters, bills - and not from memory. Nothing on it is filled in for you except your own name, date of birth, address, telephone number and email, because the platform holds no financial fact about anyone.

WHO GIVES NOTICE TO THE STATE - AND IT IS NOT YOU. Under Sec. 411.0745(e), on receipt of your petition THE COURT provides notice to the State and an opportunity for a hearing. The committed record states that you should not be charged for that notice. OCA instructions do direct a petitioner to show proof that the district attorney received a copy, and some counties expect it, which is why this packet includes a proof-of-delivery page marked CONDITIONAL. Ask the clerk whether that county wants it.

WILL THERE BE A HEARING? A hearing is required UNLESS the State does not request one before the 45th day after receiving notice AND the court finds that you are entitled to file the petition and that issuing the order is in the best interest of justice. So: if the State stays silent for 45 days and the court makes those findings, there may be no hearing at all.

NOTARIZATION. Subchapter E-1 does not require the petition to be notarized. County practice may differ. Ask the clerk.

THE TWO WAITING PERIODS, AND WHICH ONE IS YOURS. Paragraph 11 of the petition makes you choose:

TWO YEARS after completing community supervision, if you successfully complied with a condition requiring an ignition interlock device for SIX MONTHS OR LONGER.

FIVE YEARS after completing community supervision, if the court did not require the device or required it for less than six months.

That is a three-year difference and it turns on one condition of your supervision. Get the judgment AND the written conditions of community supervision from the clerk and read what they actually say before you mark the box.

ONE THING THE STATE CAN STOP. Under Sec. 411.0731(e) the court may NOT issue the order if the attorney representing the State presents evidence sufficient to the court showing that the offence resulted in a motor vehicle collision involving another person, INCLUDING A PASSENGER. If anyone was in a collision, get advice before filing.

YOU REMAIN ELIGIBLE IF THE COURT WAIVED YOUR FINES AND COSTS. Waiver does not disqualify you.

WHAT THE ORDER ACTUALLY DOES - AND WHAT IT DOES NOT. Nondisclosure is SEALING, not expunction. The order prohibits criminal justice agencies from disclosing the record to the public, and the information is still disclosed to the individuals and agencies listed in Government Code Sec.

411.076(a). The clerk sends the order to the DPS Crime Records Service by the 15th business day; DPS forwards it to the agencies in Sec. 411.075(b) within 10 business days; and any person, agency or entity holding the information seals it within 30 business days of receiving it. The record is not destroyed and you should never say it does not exist.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET HELP INSTEAD.

The committed track registry for this route records these as the points where self-help ends, in its own words:

- Any family violence finding or family violence allegation anywhere in the record.
- Any prior conviction or deferred adjudication other than a fine-only traffic offence, where the target section carries a first-time-offender condition.
- The prosecutor opposes the petition or requests a hearing.

- Any dispute about whether the sentence, fines, costs or restitution were completed.
- Immigration consequences.
- Any question whether the offence was violent or sexual in nature, which is a court determination under Gov't Code 411.0735.
- Any accident allegation in the offence report. The prosecutor can defeat the petition outright by presenting evidence of a collision involving another person, including a passenger.
- The interlock condition or its duration cannot be established from the judgment and conditions of supervision.

This packet adds five more of its own, from the assertions the forms in it make:

- The offence resulted in a motor vehicle collision involving another person, including a passenger. Sec. 411.0731(e) lets the State stop the order on that evidence.
- Your alcohol concentration was 0.15 or higher, or you are not sure. The petition asserts it was less than 0.15.
- Your community supervision was revoked at any point.
- Any offence on the Sec. 411.074 exclusion list is in your history.
- You are not a United States citizen.

DOCUMENTS TO GET FIRST, AND WHO HAS THEM.

- Your Texas DPS criminal history record - the Texas Department of Public Safety Crime Records Service, following DPS form CR-63. It establishes the disposition and shows every other conviction and deferred adjudication.
- The judgment and order of community supervision, and the discharge or dismissal order - the clerk of the court that sentenced you or placed you on community supervision.
- The written conditions of community supervision showing any ignition interlock condition AND ITS DURATION - the same clerk. The six-month threshold is what decides your waiting period.
