v.

JORDAN AVERY REYES
DEFENDANT

MOTION TO VOID CONVICTION AND SEAL RECORDS (KRS 218A.275)

The Defendant, Jordan Avery Reyes, moves the Court under KRS 218A.275 to void the conviction in this case and to seal all records pertaining to it.

GROUND

The Defendant has successfully completed the terms of treatment, probation, or sentence in this case. That is the ground the Court's own order form states, and it is the ground on which this motion is made.

DATE OF COMPLETION, 2.....
(the Defendant writes the date of completion here, and on the tendered order, before filing)

RELIEF REQUESTED

The Defendant asks the Court to enter the tendered order on Form AOC-334, ORDER VOIDING CONVICTION AND SEALING RECORDS, which is filed with this motion. That order voids the conviction and directs that all records pertaining to it in the custody of the court, and any records in the custody of any other agency or official including law enforcement records, be sealed.

The tendered order lists the agencies to be ordered to seal their records. The Defendant completes that list before filing; this motion does not name an agency the Defendant has not identified.

WHAT THIS MOTION DOES NOT DO

This motion makes no argument beyond the ground stated above. It is filed with the Office of the Circuit Court Clerk, in the original criminal case in the county of conviction, and no filing fee is charged for it. It states no deadline and no hearing date; neither is established by the order form, and the circuit court clerk is who to ask about each of them.

Respectfully submitted,

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

This page is a certificate of service. It is completed and signed at the time a copy is actually delivered or mailed, and not before.

WHO MUST BE SERVED: By mail or hand delivery on the county or Commonwealth's attorney that prosecuted the case. That is the record this build reads, and it is not the order form's. What the record does not give is that office's current name and address for the county named above, so the line below stays blank and the Defendant writes it. Ask the circuit court clerk for that address; nothing on this page is written for the Defendant.

I certify that on the date written below I served a true copy of the foregoing Motion and the tendered Order on:
