FILING INSTRUCTIONS

This packet is prepared for asking the Wyoming court that convicted you to expunge the records of that felony conviction under Wyo. Stat. Sec. 7-13-1502.

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

WHERE THIS IS FILED. File the verified Petition and the proposed Order for Expungement with the CLERK OF THE CONVICTING COURT - the court that entered your felony judgment and sentence. That is the destination the committed Wyoming record and the compiled Wyoming profile both state for a Sec. 7-13-1502 petition.

WHAT IT COSTS. The filing fee is $300.00 per petition. That figure is stated for this exact route by the committed Wyoming legal-design record and, keyed to the section, by the compiled Wyoming profile: 'Adult felony conviction under 7-13-1502 $300'. Where you are asking to expunge more than one petition's worth of records, the fee is per petition.

ABOUT A FEE WAIVER. No fee-waiver procedure is established for Sec. 7-13-1502 in the records this packet is built from. That is not the same as there being none. ASK THE CLERK OF THE CONVICTING COURT - the same clerk who takes the filing - whether that court has an indigency or fee-waiver procedure, before you pay.

WHO YOU SERVE. Two recipients, and proof of service is filed with the court:

- (1) THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY for the county of conviction; and
- (2) THE WYOMING DIVISION OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION.

The prosecuting attorney - not you - notifies any identifiable victims.

THE 90-DAY WINDOW. The prosecuting attorney has NINETY (90) DAYS to object, and no order may be granted before that window closes. The window runs from service on the prosecuting attorney, which is why the date of service matters and why you fill it in on the certificate of service when service is actually made. If no objection is filed, the court may enter the order summarily on finding eligibility.

WHAT THE ORDER DOES. On a grant the court seals its file, and a certified copy of the order is transmitted to the Division of Criminal Investigation. Under Sec. 7-13-1502(m) the expungement restores any rights that were removed as a result of the conviction.

WHAT THIS PACKET WILL NOT TELL YOU, AND WHY. It does not tell you that you may answer an inquiry as though the conviction did not occur. That entitlement appears in Wyo. Stat. Sec. 7-13-1401(f), which by its own words is confined to the NON-CONVICTION route, and it does not appear in Sec. 7-13-1502. The committed record says so in terms. Do not state that the conviction did not happen.

ONE IN A LIFETIME. Section 7-13-1502 permits one expungement of records of conviction in a lifetime. Spend it deliberately.

VERIFICATION. The petition must be verified by you. Ask the clerk of the convicting court whether that court requires the verification sworn before a notary; the committed record does not settle it.

WYOMING'S OWN SELF-HELP PAGE. The Wyoming Judicial Branch publishes an expungement page and an Expungement Handout at wyocourts.gov (Legal Help by Topic - Expungements). It does not publish a complete mandatory petition packet, which is why this petition is drafted rather than filled.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET A LAWYER INSTEAD.

- The felony may be on the Sec. 7-13-1502 exclusion list. The list is long and statute-specific and is not encoded here; have it checked.
- You have any other felony plea, nolo plea or conviction anywhere. The other-felony bar looks at your entire record.
- Any firearm use or attempted use, including where you believe a Title 23 carve-out applies.
- Any offense subject to sex offender registration under Secs. 7-19-302(g) through (j).
- You have already received one expungement under Sec. 7-13-1502.
- You completed a felony DEFERRAL rather than being convicted. There is no Wyoming expungement route for that, and this packet will not pretend otherwise: Sec. 7-13-1401(a)(i) is barred by the deferral disposition itself, Sec. 7-13-1502 requires a conviction you do not have, and Sec. 7-13-307 forbids construing Secs. 7-13-301 through 7-13-306 to authorize expunging the record. Where the Division of Criminal Investigation record misdescribes the disposition, a W.S. Sec. 7-19-109 application to purge, modify or supplement inaccurate or incomplete criminal history record information is the only thing available. It corrects the record to say what actually happened; it is not expungement, and it is not a route this packet offers.
- The prosecuting attorney files an objection, or the court sets a contested hearing.
- An identifiable victim is likely to object.
- Facts indicating human trafficking or coercion, which route to the Sec. 6-2-708 vacatur outside this track.
- Immigration consequences.
- Federal, tribal or out-of-state records, which Wyoming relief does not reach.

DOCUMENTS TO OBTAIN BEFORE YOU FILE, AND WHO HAS THEM.

- Certified judgment and sentence for the felony conviction - the clerk of the convicting court.
- Proof that probation and any court-ordered program were completed, showing the date the terms of sentence expired - the supervising probation office, or the clerk of the convicting court. The ten-year clock runs from that date.
- Proof that court-ordered restitution was paid in full - the clerk of the convicting court.
- Your Wyoming DCI criminal history record - the Wyoming Division of Criminal Investigation, Criminal Records Unit. It is the only reliable way to check the other-felony bar against your whole record.
