Request to check and conform an agency record

Alexandra Morgan Example-Sample; 1250 Long Example Boulevard Apt 204, Winston-Salem, NC 27101

To: Example County Records Department, 12345 Long Sample Administrative Road, Winston-Salem, NC 27101

Charge still shown: SYNTHETIC misdemeanor property-damage charge. Where I saw the charge still shown: SYNTHETIC county records response dated 2026-09-02, checked against the SBI right-to-review copy.

My records identify Forsyth County case 20CR000002, disposed as dismissed on 2023-12-31. The recorded 210-day outer window closed on 2024-07-28. A current record still reports this charge. Please check whether your records should be conformed to the court's disposition and any automatic expunction under G.S.15A-146(a4) and applicable notice under G.S.15A-150.

This request does not certify that an expunction occurred or that your agency failed to act. Please identify any documentary verification you require and your procedure for correcting the record.

Verification and submission instructions

Obtain SBI criminal record check, right-to-review copy. Request a right-to-review copy of your own North Carolina criminal history from the SBI. This is what shows whether the automatic expunction ran and which holders still show the charge.

Check your answer to "Where did you see the charge still showing — on your own SBI criminal record check, on a background report from an employer, or somewhere else?" against SBI criminal record check, right-to-review copy, and correct the packet if they disagree.

Check your answer to "Where did you see the charge still showing — on your own SBI criminal record check, on a background report from an employer, or somewhere else?" against The background report or notice that showed the charge, and correct the packet if they disagree.

Signature and date — Written request, final page.

The record holder's name and mailing address — Written request, address block.

The participant signs and dates the request themselves. No wet signature is required by any rule; the agency simply needs an identifiable, signed request.

none for the request itself. A certificate of verification, where the holder requires one, may carry a clerk's fee.

The agency letter is correspondence, not a court filing. Confirm the holder and address from your own report. Send by the published written channel or mail with proof of posting. No court service rule or request fee is imposed for this letter. Do not assert that expunction actually happened without verification.

Conditional AOC-G-260: include this application only when the holder requests documentary verification. It goes separately to NCAOC, not to the record holder or a trial court. Read all three original PDF pages. Use only the first application under G.S.15A-151(a)(2) for this bounded operation-of-law branch; if its sworn statements are not true or you are unsure, stop and consult an attorney. Do not select the private-entity civil-action or discharge sections.

Complete every required identity field, including driver license, race, sex, Social Security number, and prior identity details if applicable; provide your own known county/file numbers. Obtain missing identifiers from your own or former attorney records. Do not guess. The system does not invent these sensitive facts.

Choose email or mail response yourself. Sign and date the selected APPLICATION only before an authorized oath official. Leave all other application oath/signature blocks and every NCAOC certificate/search/result/records-officer field untouched. The letter needs no notarization; AOC-G-260 requires the applicant oath and cannot be signed by anyone on the applicant's behalf.

For email submission use encrypted email to NCAOC_Expunctions@nccourts.org. For a mail response send the completed application with a self-addressed stamped envelope to NC Administrative Office of the Courts, Attn: Records Officer, PO Box 2448, Raleigh, NC 27602. Consult the source's complete instructions before transmitting sensitive identifiers. Do not call NCAOC about this application; its instructions provide only encrypted-email or mail response.

Do not infer a certificate fee or waiver entitlement from the free agency letter. Confirm any applicable certificate charge through the receiving office's current published instructions before submitting. Do not manufacture a separate court fee-waiver filing.

CERTIFICATE OF VERIFICATION OF EXPUNCTION
☐ 1. I have searched the confidential file containing the names of all persons granted an expunction in North Carolina and certify that: ☐ there is no record of expunction of the case(s) identified above. NOTE: This response does not mean that no expunction occurred. Prior to October 1, 2010, some expunction statutes did not require reporting of the expunction to the NCAOC, so no record of those matters or their expunction remains in any official records of the courts or the NCAOC. ☐ attached to this Certificate is a copy of any order(s) of expunction for the case(s) identified above, as reported to the NCAOC. ☐ attached to this Certificate is a report from the confidential files of the NCAOC of the expunction of the case(s) identified above, for which there is no expunction order available, because the expunction occurred (i) prior to October 1, 2010, or (ii) by operation of law without a petition and order. ☐ 2. NOTE: This response does not mean that no dismissal upon completion of conditional discharge occurred. Prior to October 1, 2010, some conditional discharge statutes did not require reporting of the discharge to the NCAOC, so it is possible that no record of those matters or their dismissal remains in any official records of the courts or the NCAOC. ☐ attached to this Certificate is a report from the confidential files of the NCAOC of the conditional discharge of the case(s) identified above.

INSTRUCTIONS

NOTE TO APPLICANT: Read these instructions carefully. Records of expunctions are some of the most confidential records in the court system. The Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) will not disclose information about expunctions except in strict compliance with G.S. 15A-151(a) and 15A-152. If the NCAOC receives an application that fails to comply with these instructions, there may be no response to the application.

1. If you have any questions about this application or its completion, you should consult an attorney. The staff at the NCAOC cannot provide legal advice and therefore cannot assist you with completion of this application.
2. The request on Side One or Side Two must be sworn to or affirmed by the person whose record was expunged. It may not be signed by anyone else on that person's behalf, including by an attorney representing that person.
3. You may not strike through or modify any item on Side One or Side Two. All of the information and statements on Side One or Side Two are required for a valid application. You need complete only one of the two APPLICATION sections on Side One or the APPLICATION section on Side Two. If you have any questions regarding which APPLICATION section applies to you, you should consult an attorney.
4. If you wish to submit an application electronically, the form is available electronically on the NCAOC's website by visiting www.nccourts.gov/documents/forms. In the "Contains" field, enter the number of this form, AOC-G-260.
5. After completion, this form may be filed electronically by sending an encrypted email of the completed form to the email address below. This form may also be printed and submitted manually by mailing to the address listed below.
6. Print clearly and legibly, using only black ink. Applications with illegible information may not receive a response. A self-addressed stamped envelope must be included for all mailed applications to receive a response. Applications submitted by mail without a self-addressed stamped envelope may not receive a response. Electronically filed applications that are sent to the email address below will receive a response sent by encrypted email. If you wish to receive a hard copy response, you must submit the application by mail and include a self-addressed stamped envelope.
7. Provide complete information in every field on Side One above the APPLICATION sections. Identifying information such as drivers license information, date of birth, and social security number is critical to this application. If the staff of the NCAOC is unable to verify that a particular record of expunction or discharge pertains to the applicant, the NCAOC will respond that "there is no record of expunction" or "there is no record of dismissal upon completion of conditional discharge" in order to avoid the risk of disclosing the expunction or discharge record of another person.
8. The specific county and file number are required for every case for which you are requesting verification of expunction or discharge. If multiple cases were expunged, you must provide the county and file number for every case for which you need verification. The NCAOC will provide verification of expunction or discharge only for cases specifically identified on Side One.
9. If you do not know the county or file number(s) of the case(s) expunged or discharged, the NCAOC and the clerk of superior court cannot help you find them. You must provide the file number from your own records or from the records of any attorney who may have represented you on the expunction petition or in the original case(s).
10. If you are submitting this application for the purpose of pursuing a civil action against a private entity that has disclosed information about an expunged case(s) in violation of G.S. 15A-152 (in other words, if you are applying using the second APPLICATION section on Side One), then a copy of the private entity's disclosure of information about the expunged case(s) must be submitted with the application.
11. If you wish to receive a response to this application by email, you must provide a valid email address. If you wish to receive a response to this application by mail, you must include a self-addressed, stamped envelope with this application.
12. DO NOT call the NCAOC to ask about this application. In order to avoid improper disclosure of information about expunged or discharged cases, the staff of the NCAOC will not discuss this application with anyone over the phone. The NCAOC will not even acknowledge the receipt of this application. There will be no exceptions. The only response to this application will be by encrypted email or by U.S. mail, using your self-addressed stamped envelope.
13. If you wish to receive the NCAOC's verification by email, send the application to:

SYNTHETIC REVIEW FIXTURE - DO NOT SEND OR FILE

Legal effect and self-help limits

Stop and get legal advice: The agency refuses to act, or does not respond within the time it publishes for records requests.

Stop and get legal advice: The agency asserts the expunction did not occur, or that the case is outside G.S. 15A-146(a4).

Stop and get legal advice: The stale record has already cost the participant a job, a licence or housing, where a claim may exist and time limits may run.

Stop and get legal advice: Any immigration matter, where the underlying records may be needed and this correspondence should not go out without advice.

Stop and get legal advice: The holder is a federal agency or an out-of-state agency, which North Carolina expunction does not reach.

If the holder refuses or does not respond, self-help ends. A second letter is not the answer and the participant needs a lawyer.

Expunction can harm an immigration case by destroying record access.

This packet requests record verification and follow-up. It does not itself expunge, seal, certify, or order removal of a charge. A 210-day calculation is a route timing check, not proof that automatic expunction actually ran.

Keep the SBI right-to-review record and the report showing the charge. Stop if the person/case/disposition does not match, if the recorded period has not elapsed, if the court record still needs relief rather than agency follow-up, or if an agency contests the legal basis. Get route-specific legal help rather than altering this letter into a petition.

A private background-report disclosure may involve a different G.S.15A-152 civil-action branch. This packet does not select that sworn application or determine civil liability. Do not promise record destruction, employment results, a deadline for agency correction or a guaranteed response.

Send NCAOC verification, if obtained, to the record holder only as its correction process requires. Preserve submission/response records. Do not treat a missing NCAOC record response as conclusive proof that no expunction occurred.
