

THE ORDER THE COURT OWES YOU WITHOUT ANY PETITION, AND HOW TO ASK FOR IT

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

START HERE, BECAUSE THE STATUTE DOES NOT ASK YOU TO FILE ANYTHING.

Government Code Sec. 411.0729 names NO FILING PARTY and requires NO PETITION. Read at source, the section says the court holds a hearing on whether issuing the order is in the best interest of justice and, unless it finds that it is not, THE COURT ENTERS THE ORDER. There is no waiting period. On that route nothing is filed and NO FILING FEE ARISES.

So the first thing to do is not to fill in a petition. It is to find out whether the order already issued, and if it did not, to ask the court to do what the section says it does.

STEP 1 - CHECK WHETHER IT ALREADY ISSUED. Get your Texas DPS criminal history record from the Department of Public Safety Crime Records Service, following DPS form CR-63. If the misdemeanour is already sealed, the court has done this and there is nothing to file and nothing to pay.

STEP 2 - GATHER WHAT PROVES YOU ARE INSIDE THE SECTION. Four things have to be true and each has a record behind it:

- the offence is a MISDEMEANOUR, and you were placed on community supervision for it, including deferred adjudication community supervision. The judgment or the order placing you on community supervision proves it;
- you SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED all the conditions of that community supervision. The clerk of that court has the record;
- after committing the offence you elected to take part in, and SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED, a court-approved VETERANS REEMPLOYMENT PROGRAMME established under Subchapter H-1, Chapter 42A, Code of Criminal Procedure. The programme or the court that approved it has the record;
- you are a VETERAN of the United States Armed Forces, including the reserves, the national guard or the state guard. Your discharge paperwork proves it.

SOMETHING THIS SECTION DOES NOT ASK OF YOU. Under Sec. 411.0729(b) the section applies REGARDLESS of whether you meet the other eligibility criteria in the subchapter, so the Government Code Sec. 411.074 basic conditions that gate almost every other nondisclosure section do not gate this one. The petition in this packet says so on its own face at paragraph 3.

STEP 3 - ASK THE COURT. Contact the clerk of the court that placed you on community supervision and ask whether the court will set the Sec. 411.0729 hearing without a petition, or whether that court wants a petition filed. Courts differ, which is why OCA publishes a model petition for a section that does not require one.

IF THE COURT WANTS A PETITION - AND ONLY THEN.

The next two documents in this packet are the OCA model petition and the OCA model order for Sec. 411.0729. They are marked CONDITIONAL for that reason. Do not file them because they are in the packet; file them because the clerk told you that court requires it, or because the court has not held the hearing.

WHERE IT GOES. The clerk of the court that placed you on community supervision, who forwards it to the court. This is NOT the county of arrest. Under Government Code Sec. 411.0745(a) you may file in person, electronically or by mail. OCA instructions say that in most courts a proposed order must be submitted with the petition, which is why the proposed order is here.

ONE OFFENCE, ONE ORDER. An order of nondisclosure applies to a single offence. If you want more than one offence sealed, that takes more than one order.

WHAT IT COSTS IF YOU DO FILE. Government Code Sec. 411.0745(b) requires payment of the fee that generally applies to filing a CIVIL CASE. That subsection sets the TYPE of fee, not an amount: there is no flat statutory figure and your county's civil filing fee schedule governs. OCA describes the total as typically about $280, varying by county. CALL THE CLERK OF THAT COURT AND ASK before you go.

AND THE NUMBER TO IGNORE: $28. You may have read that an order of nondisclosure costs $28. THAT FIGURE IS NOT YOURS ON EITHER ROUTE HERE. It belongs only to the no-petition route under Government Code Sec. 411.072(c), an entirely different section, and the committed record states in terms that it is not a filing fee at all.

PARAGRAPH 6 OF THE PETITION IS MARKED BY HAND. The petition prints two choices there - the required filing fees and court costs, or a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs - and unlike every other control on that form there is NO FILLABLE BOX behind them. Mark the one that applies to you with a pen.

IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD IT. The STATEMENT OF INABILITY TO AFFORD PAYMENT OF COURT COSTS under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145 is in this packet, on the statewide bilingual form approved by the Supreme Court of Texas in Misc. Docket No. 22-9090. Rule 145 requires the clerk to make that form available WITHOUT CHARGE AND WITHOUT YOUR HAVING TO ASK, so you are entitled to it whether or not you use the copy here. It is sworn under penalty of perjury: fill it from pay statements, benefit letters and bills, not from memory. Nothing on it is filled in for you except your own name, date of birth, address, telephone number and email, because the platform holds no financial fact about anyone.

WHO GIVES NOTICE TO THE STATE - AND IT IS NOT YOU. Under Sec. 411.0745(e), on receipt of a petition THE COURT provides notice to the State and an opportunity for a hearing, and the committed record states that you should not be charged for that notice. On the statutory route the court holds the hearing of its own motion. You serve nobody either way.

NOTARIZATION. Subchapter E-1 does not require the petition to be notarized. County practice may differ. Ask the clerk.

WHEN TO STOP AND GET HELP INSTEAD.

The committed track registry for this route records these as the points where self-help ends, in its own words:

- Any family violence finding or family violence allegation anywhere in the record.
- Any prior conviction or deferred adjudication other than a fine-only traffic offence, where the target section carries a first-time-offender condition.
- The prosecutor opposes the petition or requests a hearing.
- Any dispute about whether the sentence, fines, costs or restitution were completed.
- Immigration consequences.
- Any question whether the offence was violent or sexual in nature, which is a court determination under Gov't Code 411.0735.
- The court finds that issuance is not in the best interest of justice.
- Veteran status or completion of the Subchapter H-1 programme cannot be established.

This packet adds four more of its own, taken from the assertions the forms in it actually make:

- The offence is a FELONY. Section 411.0729 reaches a misdemeanour only.
- You did not successfully complete ALL the conditions of your community supervision.
- The programme you completed was not a court-approved veterans reemployment programme under Subchapter H-1, Chapter 42A, Code of Criminal Procedure, or you are not sure that it was.
- You cannot establish veteran status, or you cannot establish completion of the programme. The petition asserts both about you.

DOCUMENTS TO GET FIRST, AND WHO HAS THEM.

- Your Texas DPS criminal history record - the Texas Department of Public Safety Crime Records Service, following DPS form CR-63. It shows whether the order already issued.
- The judgment or the order placing you on community supervision - the clerk of that court. It carries the offence wording and the cause number.
- The record that you successfully completed the veterans reemployment programme and all other conditions of community supervision - the programme, or the clerk of that court. It carries the completion date this section turns on.
- Your discharge paperwork or other proof of veteran status.

WHAT THE ORDER DOES, AND WHAT TO DO AFTER IT ISSUES

Prepared for: Jordan Avery Reyes

WHAT THE ORDER ACTUALLY DOES - AND WHAT IT DOES NOT.

Nondisclosure is SEALING, not expunction. The order prohibits criminal justice agencies from disclosing the record to the public. The information is still disclosed to the individuals and agencies listed in Government Code Sec. 411.076(a). THE RECORD IS NOT DESTROYED, and you should never say it does not exist.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER THE JUDGE SIGNS, AND WHO DOES IT. The order itself sets out the chain, and none of it is your job:

- the court clerk sends the order, or the relevant criminal history record information in it, to the Crime Records Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety no later than the 15th business day after the order issues, under Government Code Sec. 411.075(a);
- DPS seals the information and forwards it to the state and federal agencies listed in Government Code Sec. 411.075(b) no later than 10 business days after receiving it from the clerk;
- any person, agency or entity holding the information seals it no later than 30 business days after receiving it, under Government Code Sec. 411.075(d);
- the clerk seals the court records as soon as practicable after sending the order to DPS, under Government Code Sec. 411.076(b).

SO GIVE IT ABOUT THREE MONTHS, THEN CHECK. Pull your Texas DPS criminal history record again, following DPS form CR-63, and confirm the offence is sealed. If it is not, take a certified copy of the signed order to the clerk and ask where it stopped.

KEEP A CERTIFIED COPY OF THE SIGNED ORDER. Ask the clerk for one before you leave. It is the only thing that proves the order exists if a background check turns the record up later.

WHAT YOU MAY SAY AFTERWARDS. Nondisclosure lets you deny the offence in most, not all, settings, and the exceptions are the agencies and entities in Government Code Sec. 411.076(a). This packet does not advise you on any particular question about any particular employer, licence or application. If the answer matters, ask a lawyer before you answer.

ONE ORDER, ONE OFFENCE. If more than one offence is on your record, this order sealed one of them. The others need their own orders and may fall under other sections entirely.

IF THE COURT REFUSED. Section 411.0729 lets the court decline where it finds that issuance is NOT in the best interest of justice. That is a finding, not a formality, and the committed record records it as a point where self-help ends. Get advice rather than refiling.
